

To Prolong The Big Fair

Management Are Considering Expediency of Extending It Three Days.

Continued Adverse Weather Conditions Threatens Serious Financial Loss.

Judging Livestock and Poultry Continues—Few Results Known.

From Our Own Correspondent. NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 4.—On the second of the outdoor fair the livestock parade and other outdoor attractions are called off this afternoon and evening.

Mr. Cawthra Mulock Here

Canada's Youngest Millionaire and Party Reach City from the Mainland.

Accompanied by M. J. Haney Well Known in Railway Circles and J. C. Walsh.

Party Completing an Extensive Tour Throughout the Dominion.

AMONG the arrivals from the mainland and on the steamer Princess Victoria last evening were Cawthra Mulock, of Toronto, M. J. Haney, of Toronto, and J. C. Walsh, of Toronto. Mr. Mulock is one of Canada's youngest millionaires. He is the second son of Sir John Mulock, postmaster-general of the Dominion, and is a member of the family which has been prominent in the public and philanthropic work of the Dominion since the construction of the section of the proposed new hospital. This institution is to cost $1,000,000 and is now being constructed on the Pacific slope. He was the first to purchase the land on which the hospital is to be built. He is now engaged in making a tour of the Dominion and is missing part of the Dominion and is missing part of the Dominion.

INSPECTING THE WIRES.

Western Union Declines to Give Police Free Hand.

New York, Oct. 4.—The Western Union Telegraph Company today refused to grant unrestricted inspection of its wires by the New York police in places where the police might suspect these wires were in use for illegal purposes.

"BLACK HAND" PLOT.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 4.—It is believed that the "Black Hand" plot to kidnap a prominent New York City official is still being carried out.

YELLOW FEVER REPORTS.

New Orleans, Oct. 4.—The yellow fever report for 9 p.m. New cases, 22; total to date, 3,084; deaths, 4; total, 400; discharged, 2,500.

CANADIAN WINS PRIZE.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—The Canadian team won the prize for the best performance in the Dominion.

CAPTURED BY YAGUIS.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 4.—A report has been received from Sonora, Mexico, that a party of men were captured by Yaguis Indians recently.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

October 4, 1905. Laird v. Laird.—The justice of the peace in this case is an action from Rosland.

News Notes of The Dominion

Judge Decides in Favor of the Allans in "Parisian" Collision Case.

Toronto and Hamilton Claim Satisfactory Growth During the Year.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—Judge McDonald decided yesterday in the admiralty court that the steamer Albano, of the Hamburg-American line, was solely to blame for the collision with the Allan liner Parolan last October.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The annual meeting of the Catholic archbishops of Canada is being held at the archbishop's palace here.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—According to the returns issued by the assessment department yesterday, the population of Toronto is 286,045, an increase of 13,877 compared with the same returns a year ago.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—The population of the city of Halifax is estimated to be 28,000.

Sensational Disclosures

More Startling Evidence Given Before Insurance Investigation Committee.

Presidents of Companies Borrow From Rival Concerns at Joblot Rates.

No Record of $150,000 Paid to the Republican Campaign Fund.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at 1 1/2 per cent interest today was the market value, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1904, and was until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it still is running.

EXAMINING PANAMA CANAL.

Commission Reaches Canal to Inspect Proposed Route.

Colon, Oct. 4.—The steamer Havana from New York, having on board the advisory board of consulting engineers of the canal commission, arrived here early today.

KIDNAPPERS THREATEN.

New York, Oct. 4.—A third threatening letter has been received by Francis J. Mariani, whose son, Aaron, is alleged to have been kidnapped. In this letter a demand was again made for the $5,000 ransom which the threat was made that the boy would be killed if the money was not paid today.

GIVEN UP FOR LOST.

Party of Twenty Indians Supposed to Have Been Drowned.

Charlevoix, Mich., Oct. 4.—A fishing boat with four families of Indians from Garden Island, including several women and children, left here September 20th for Beaver Island. The boat has not yet reached the island and it is about been given up as lost.

INSURANCE SCANDALS.

Bankruptcy Proceedings Against General Manager of Western Life.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 4.—Bankruptcy proceedings against E. I. Rosenfeld, general manager of the Western Life Insurance Company, were today referred by Federal Judge Bethel to the referee in bankruptcy.

DISCRIMINATING RATES.

Carriage Builders' Association Support Roosevelt in His Move.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 4.—The National Carriage Builders' association today supported President Roosevelt in his move to reduce the tariff on carriages.

Pacific Coast Happenings

Eastern Capitalists Secure Great Water Power at Mount Baker.

Warm Winds Cause a Sudden Rise in Mountain Streams That Threaten Floods.

Bellingham, Oct. 4.—(Special.) Stone and Webster of Boston, who already own the street railway system of Tacoma, Seattle and Bellingham, have purchased from the British Columbia Electric Power Company the rights to the electric power plant at Mount Baker.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—(Special.) The city council today decided to purchase the water rights to the Mount Baker power plant.

Dominion News Notes

First of C. P. R.'s New Atlantic Steamers Shortly to Be Launched.

Toronto Commercial Interests Take Exception to B. C. Taxation.

Belief That the Last Big Fire at Fernie Was Result of Incendiarism.

Quebec, Oct. 5.—The Leyland line steamer, which went ashore at Crane Island last night and arrived in port at Quebec today, during a business meeting. She will go into dry dock at St. John's.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—The decision of the minister of justice not to interfere with the British Columbia tax on commercial travelers is strongly condemned by the business community, and especially by the prominent travelers.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—Crown authorities are investigating the fight which took place in the Baptist church near Port Huron, during a business meeting. The fight took place between a member of the church and a stranger.

Mulock Quit

Reported Retire Master General Confined.

Imperative Order Physician Obeyed.

Minister's Deep Parture Before of Life.

From Our Own Correspondent. OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Mr. Mulock as minister of the interior is reported to have been accepted by the cabinet.

Annual Meeting of the C. P. R.

Shareholders Approve Improvements Contemplated and Under Way.

President's Address Emphasizes Prosperity Being Enjoyed by Company.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held here today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.