

THE TORONTO WORLD

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 24, 1888.

THE CATHOLIC COUNCIL

Opened with Pomp and Splendor in New York.

Condensed from the New York Sun. St. Patrick's cathedral was filled with worshippers at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning...

At last the voices of the boy chorists were heard outside, chanting antiphonally, and soon the long train of acolytes, monks, deacons, priests, bishops and archbishops passed slowly up and gradually filled the chancel.

During the mass, which was said by Bishop Laughlin of Brooklyn, the bishops had been ranged in seats on the epistle side of the altar, facing the Cardinal's throne...

The Bishop Laughlin seated himself in his chair of state on the opposite side of the altar, Cardinal McCloskey came from the archiepiscopal seat, mitre, barrette, and missal, on crimson cushions and carrying flaming tapers, preceded him.

Soon after the cardinal declared the council open and the bishops unanimously elected the following officers: Bishop Laughlin and Monsignor Quinn, promoters; Dr. McCreary, chief notary, with four assistants; Fathers Parley, McDonnell, Lavelle and Kelly, masters of ceremony, and Fathers Riordan, Keane and Lomony, cantors.
