A stranger to the city came,
Who knew no friends and had no home;
But, walking westward with his wife,
He chanced near WALKER'S store-to come.
And WALKER bade them enter in
And lock round as they pleased.
For it is always WALKER'S way
To make you feel at ease.
Oh. WALKER I" thus the stranger spake,
"Please tell me is it true,
"That if we want to pay on time
"We can get the things from you?"
Why, yes." was WALKER'S quick reply,
"We can fill your wants and wishes,
With Parlor Suites and Bedroom Sets,
With Parlor Suites and Tweeds,
Tapestry and Smyrna Rugs,
Linoleums for the hall;
Matresses, Blankets, Comforters,
And tables, large and small."
smile lit up the stranger's face.

From Sir Charles Tupper's speech, Toronto, 1885: The Organs of the Dominion Organ and Piano Company at the Antwerp International Exhibition were pronounced by the ablest and best judges superior to those of any other country there on exhibit. Not only was this Company awarded the very highest honors the judges could possibly confer, but they declared further that the tone of those organs was superior to any they had seen, heard or examined.
