THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY ALL RIGHT.

The Conservative party has gone through many trials since the general election in 1891. Sir John A. Macdonald conducted that election which he was in poor health, and under the strain of it he practically broke up his constitution, the result being that he died some five months thereafter. It was confidently predicted that by his death the Conservative party had eagleator, the demagog and the Anarchist will be kept far from the halls of University College.

FUBLIC SCHOOL EXPENDITURE.

The Conservative party has gone through many trials since the general election in 1891. Sir John A. Macdonald conducted that election when he was in poor health, and under the strain of it he practically broke up his constitution, the result being that he died some five months thereafter. It was confidently predicted that by his death the Conservative party had reached its end as a party militant and as a party regnant, and that stricts the lien of the landlord for rent after an assignment has been made to arrears of rent of one year previous to and for three months following the assignment. It further enacts that the relation of landlord and tenant shall be deemed to be founded in the express or implied contract of the parties, and not upon tenure or service, and a reversion shall not be necessary to such relation, which shall be deemed to subsist in all cases where there shall be an agreement to hold land from one another in consideration of any rent.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt introduced a bill to make further provision for the public health. It relates to the constitution of local boards of health, the establishment of waterworks systems or sewerage sys-
