

NEW BRUNSWICK POLITICS

Premier Blair Tired of a Coalition Cabinet

He Desires an Appeal to the People—Peter Mitchell's Candidature in Northumberland Regarded as Fatal—Dr. Weidman Will Have a Hard Fight in Albert—Mr. Foster's Election in York Assured.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 3.—Your correspondent interviewed to-day a gentleman who had just arrived from Westmoreland and obtained some very interesting political notes from that county and province.

The Blair Government in Quebec is in great trouble just now. The Liberal members of that coalition desire an appeal to the people at once, giving it to be inferred that if the Ministry is sustained they will turn to and help Laurier, when the Dominion elections are brought on.

It is also stated that Hon. Peter Mitchell's candidature in Northumberland is looked upon as a farce, and that, in case Hon. Mike Adams does not run, Hon. Mr. Weidman will be the member of the Blair Ministry, who will be the Ex-Minister of Marine's opponent.

It looks as if Dr. Weidman, M.P., would have a hard fight in Albert, as his prospective opponent, Henry R. Emerson, now Commissioner of Public Works, is a very strong candidate, but it is all nonsense to suppose that Hon. Mr. Foster will be elected in York, where he is strongly supported by Mr. Gibson.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD

Trouble Between Catholics and Protestants

The Separate School Board met last night, Vice-General McCann presiding. There were present Rev. Fathers McEntee, Carberry, Cruise and Rohler, and Messrs. P. J. Mulqueen, James Ryan, M. Walsh, P. Fayne and William Ross.

Reports of committees were discussed, with a result that accounts amounting to $125 were passed, and it was decided to make sundry repairs to and purchases for St. Paul's and St. Michael's schools.

A recommendation of the Management and Supplies Committee that the Separate School salary be increased as caretaker of St. Helen's school, and assistant caretaker of St. Paul's school, be discharged, was referred back to the committee for further information.

A new teacher will be appointed for a school at a salary of $200 per annum. The Board, had Scheme of a Speculative Pacific Coast Shipper.

A curious tale is told by passengers from Alaska of the discovery made by one of her number, a Seattle man named Brennan, on the coast of the island of Erebus, west of the Bering Sea, of a small soap laden with a miscellaneous cargo, on which was inscribed a good profit, trading among the natives of the northern coast.

It was on an expedition he chanced to visit one of the least accessible villages of the isolated tribes. Brennan was there to see the mysterious divinity that is supposed to keep watch and ward over the tribe, a former chief of queen, who by some rare action of the peculiar soil in which he grew, had become solid stone.

Years later the body was found. The natives held it as an object of good faith, and the body should have been properly buried, and carefully examined it, enthroned it in a place of honor in the village, the idol so respected being ever since more honored than the oldest totem.

Brennan claims to be the first white man to see the statue, but so far from feeling awe or being moved to adore, he at once realized that if it could be really managed to the United States it would be worth a mint of money for exhibition purposes.

THE PRELIER AND THE POLE

An Exciting Incident Not Down on the Bills

Perched on a Pole. Yesterday Ridley perched himself upon the cross-arms of a pole, and was pressing his opinions on the merits and demerits of the play and players, in a manner to attract the attention of the spectators.

When Serjt. Archer had worked himself through the meshes of the lower cord, he had not reckoned with when he left terra-firma. How he managed to get up there, Ridley laughed at all propositions of compromise and tickled the pole with his foot.

Ridley climbed as far heavenward as he could reach, while there to see the mysterious divinity that is supposed to keep watch and ward over the tribe, a former chief of queen, who by some rare action of the peculiar soil in which he grew, had become solid stone.

Years later the body was found. The natives held it as an object of good faith, and the body should have been properly buried, and carefully examined it, enthroned it in a place of honor in the village, the idol so respected being ever since more honored than the oldest totem.

MR. JONAS OF GASPE

Devotes Some Attention to the "Fanatics" of Ontario and Expresses His Own Views on the Manitoba School Question.

Editorial in L'Evenement, Quebec, Aug. 31. NOTHING MORE. Among the most fanatical journals of the Province of Ontario is The Toronto World, directed by Mr. Maclean, a young member for the county of York.

A representative of the people, under a mandate which obliges him to see an example respecting the laws and constitution of his country, his prejudices, his hatred of everything Catholic, his French cause him to forget his duty, and although he admits with D. Alton McCarthy and many others, which he the violation of the law of 1890, which he the violation of the law of 1890, which he the violation of the law of 1890.

For some time he has written to this effect and during the session at Ottawa he took a great deal of trouble to prevent the passage of a remedial bill to the House.

Ask him the reasons of his opposition to the bill, and he will stammer, for he has no guide save the spirit of party persecution.

He humbly admits, if you press him, that it is most unfortunate that the Catholics are forced to school with the Protestants, and that they cannot send their children; that they have certain reasons for this, but he seems to say, now that Greenhouse has found a method of putting in the law, and that they will keep their children, and don't let anyone try to prevent our persecuting them, for when we have to do with anything rather than sacrifice our hatred and our satisfaction at seeing them hate.

In this way argue the McCarthy's, the Martins, the Wallace's, the Hughes and the others who are so ready to surround them some thousands of fanatics, who have begun to believe that the best way to get rid of them is to surround them with a wall of iron, and that they are the only ones who are necessary to the existence of the Canadian confederation.

They'll soon awaken, at least, let us hope so, and find out that they have grossly deceived themselves, and that the best way to get rid of them is to surround them with a wall of iron, and that they are the only ones who are necessary to the existence of the Canadian confederation.

TOO HANDY WITH THE PEN

SCHOOL TEACHERS' EPITOLATORY TENDENCIES.

The Alleged Evil Discussed at a Meeting of the Collegiate Institute Board, and Some Suggestions Given the Officers as to Their Conduct in This Respect in Future.

The Collegiate Institute Board met last night and passed reports. The total expenditures for the half year, ending June 30, were $10,954.89 was spent at Jamieson-avenue $10,338.84, and at Harbor-street $11,901.61.

There was considerable discussion over Dr. Ferguson's motion, of which notice was given before the holidays, relative to the epistolatory tendencies of teachers. The motion was seconded by Trustee Hastings and read as follows: That members of the Board staff shall not write letters to the public press on matters pertaining to the Collegiate Institute, nor on the official actions of the Board, any of its committees, members or officers.
