The league game at Sydney Mines between Sydney Mines United and Glace Bay, St. Mary's, proved to be a soft thing for the home team who ran out easy winners by 7 goals to nothing. Gorman of Sydney Mines received a nasty twist in the left knee 15 minutes from the start, and was unable to take any further part in the game. Caladonia defeated the Hub by 3 goals to nothing.

One drunk in the cell on Sunday was taken seriously ill, and had it not been for immediate medical attention, would undoubtedly have died. Bad whiskey is believed to be the cause.

Miss R. A. Moore has now removed all her large stock from North Sydney to Sydney Mines, and is prepared to fill orders for millinery of all descriptions.

John Congdon, till lately janitor at the High School, whose mysterious disappearance was the talk of the town, has turned up again. It appears that he went on a schooner at North Sydney and was carried to Windsor, N. S.

A particular sad death at Sydney Mines was that of Mrs. Lindsay Aker, which occurred yesterday at her residence on Huron Avenue. The deceased lady, who was a general favorite came here as a bride only eighteen months ago, and was but 23 years of age. She was formerly Miss Prowse, of Sydney, to which place her body is to be taken for interment this afternoon.

IT HAS MANY OFFICES.—Before the German soldier starts on a long march he rubs his feet with tallow, for his first care is to keep his feet in good condition. If he knew that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil would be of much better service he would throw away his tallow and pack a few bottles of the Oil in his knapsack. There is nothing like it.

A grand concert is to be given in Temperance hall, Sydney Mines, on Monday, October 30th. Prof. Horri-gan, of Sydney, and local talent will take part.

Next Sunday will be observed as Thanksgiving Sunday in the Methodist church. Rev. W. H. Heartz, D.D., President of the Nova Scotia Conference, will preach in the morning, and the pastor will conduct the service in the evening. On Thursday evening (Thanksgiving evening) the Methodist congregation will meet in their beautiful parsonage, for a social evening. It is expected that the President of the Conference will be present.

SMILING BABIES

The well baby is never a cross baby. When baby cries or is fretful, it is taking the only way it can to let mother know that there is something wrong. That something is probably some derangement of the stomach or bowels, or perhaps the pain of teething. These troubles are speedily removed and cured by Baby's Own Tablets, and baby smiles again—in fact there's a smile in every dose. Mrs. Mary E. Adams, Lake George, N. B., says:—"I have found Baby's Own Tablets so good for the ills of little ones that I would not like to be without them." That is the experience of all mothers who have tried the tablets, and they know this medicine is safe, for it is guaranteed to contain no opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. Equally good for the child just born or well advanced in years. Sold by all druggists or mailed at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The death of Robert Robertson occurred yesterday morning. He was eighty years of age. He had been ailing during the past three months. Deceased was born in Paisley, Scotland, and came to this country twelve years ago. He leaves two sons, William Robertson, insurance agent at Sydney, and Councillor J. J. Robertson, of Sydney Mines, and one daughter, Mrs. Edward Stone, of North Sydney. The funeral takes place tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of his son, Councillor J. J. Robertson.

A Sydney Mines correspondent writes:—The largest number of drunks that has been known in this town for a quarter of a century, appeared before the Magistrate's Court this morning, when 11 men were brought from the cells to receive their sentence. It is certainly time that steps were taken to stop the prevalent and rapidly increasing evil of drunkenness in this town. On Saturday evening last, the air for a hundred yards on each side of King Edward and Jubilee Hotels was well nigh drunk with the 'booze' and all this in a Scott Act town!
