

Personal Mention

Thomson, Ochterloney Street, has returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Monroe, Nictaux, Annapolis Co.

Lieut. and Mrs. C. S. Innes spent the week-end in Bridgetown the guests of Mrs. Innes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Dunham, returning to Halifax via Monday's express.

Maj. J. E. Morse, of Paradise, at present stationed in Halifax, made the MONITOR a friendly call yesterday afternoon. Major Morse is a brother of the late Dr. Morse, of Digby.

Mr. Reginald Dimock, Chief Naval Accountant at the Halifax Dock yard, who recently lost an eye, has been spending a week in Annapolis, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Hawkesworth.

Capt. and Mrs. Leon Everett and the latter's sister, Miss Pauline Warner, of Plympton, were in town Saturday. Capt. Everett arrived here Thursday from New York via S. S. Valinda.

Annapolis Spectator: Mrs. Enoch Rawding, of Bridgetown, has been visiting at Mr. Henry Rawding's. Mrs. Agnes King went to Middleton Monday to visit her granddaughter, Mrs. Young.

Mr. W. Amberson, of Granville Ferry, is spending a few days with Mr. Archie P. Troop, of Belleisle. Mr. Amberson is a very enthusiastic Odd-fellow and a veteran, having joined the Order in 1875.

Mrs. M. K. Piper, of Liverpool, formerly proprietress of the Bridgetown MONITOR, is spending a few days in town where she has a host of friends, who are always pleased to welcome her return.

Mr. Charles Palfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Palfrey, has resigned his position as statistical manager of E. H. White & Co.'s office, Boston, to accept a similar position with the Eastern Hat & Cap Co., Truro.

Dr. M. E. Armstrong returned Thursday from Boston (via Valinda from St. John) where he accompanied Mr. J. Howe Ray, of Upper Granville, who is in the Massachusetts General Hospital for special treatment.

The engagement is announced of Miss Elizabeth Evelyn Wood, of Rosindale, Mass., to Corporal Arthur Fleming Borden, of Kingsport, Nova Scotia, recently repatriated from Germany, the marriage to take place in June.

Summerside, P. E. I., Journal: Mr. Herbert Corbett, teller of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Alberton, has been transferred to the Bank at Annapolis, Nova Scotia. We congratulate Mr. Corbett on his promotion and hope that he will make as many new friends in Annapolis as he has left in Alberton.

Referring to the transfer of Allan W. Woodrow, Bank of Nova Scotia, Stellarton, N. S., to Toronto, the Woodstock Press says: "All Woodrow is well known here, where he was connected with the Bank of Nova Scotia. He was interested in athletics, and a prominent member of the baseball team."

The Halifax Chronicle on Monday had this concerning a warrior and his wife, who will be welcomed back: Lieutenant-Colonel C. R. Hodgins, Mrs. Hodgins and P. R. K. Hodgins arrived from England this week and are spending a short time at the Birchdale before proceeding to Granville Ferry, where Colonel Hodgins owns a large farm, to take up their residence there. The Colonel has been at the front nearly four years and has been invalided home.

CHARLES B. RAND

The Famous Boston Optical Expert who for a number of years has been making regular visits through Nova Scotia, and who has hundreds of satisfied customers, will make a special visit to Bridgetown, at the St. James Hotel, FRIDAY, JUNE 14th and SATURDAY, JUNE 15th. Office Hours: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Read the following testimonial:

Mr. Chas. B. Rand, Optical Expert, Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:—The glasses you fitted me to are most satisfactory. I highly recommend your special system of fitting eyes to anyone who needs glasses.

Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) E. C. HALL, Manufacturers Life Insurance Co.

To every one it is suffering for the want of correct glasses, be sure and take advantage of this opportunity to have your eyes examined by my special method of looking through your eyes and taking the exact optical measurements of your sight without the tiresome looking at lines and letters on the wall and trying on lenses till your eyes are so confused you can not tell what you can see.

Examination free for this visit, and if glasses are required, they will be fitted at reasonable rates.

"GODDESS"

Corsets that Lace in Front

ANITA STEWART

The creator of the charming screen play, "The Goddess," inspired the name of the "GODDESS CORSETS," of which she writes:

"Your Goddess Corsets are most satisfactory. They give greatest possible comfort and freedom, and without any undue compression add to the grace of the figure."

This is quite a triumph for the GODDESS CORSET, which is made in Canada, where it has jumped into such favor that all up-to-date stores show them.

THERE IS A STYLE FOR EVERY FIGURE.

Made by the Dominion Corset Co., makers also of the celebrated D. & A. and La Diva Corsets.
