THE BLESSINGS OF EARLY MARRIAGE

PROBATION

The Anglican Synod meeting at London, Ontario, discussed at very length, and yet important subject when it debated the question of young marriages. Students of sociology are coming more and more to the conclusion that young marriages contribute the cure for a formidable list of social evils, and offer possibly the greatest chance for happiness to the average man and woman. Youth is the time when the "golden rule" and "golden age" are most likely to be observed. The young man and woman are more likely to be true to each other, and more likely to be true to their duties. The young man and woman are more likely to be true to their duties, and more likely to be true to their duties. The young man and woman are more likely to be true to their duties, and more likely to be true to their duties.
