"The 'Country Parson's' books are the most comfortable reading in the world—books to be read under the trees in the leisure of vacation afternoons, or by the lamplight of winter evenings, when the day's work is done. They are such books as you feel you could have written yourself, until you try, and find you can't. They are frank, confidential, wise, courteous, kindly, restful, sympathetic, placid, and piquant. They are exactly the books for busy, restless, active Americans. A calm, thoughtful quiet flows around us, and soothes us to repose."
