Simple, sacred solos with Quartette, Chorus and Pleasing Piano Arrangements

I know He knows when I am sad and
I know He knows though I may fall to
I know He knows that I am weak and
I know He knows when I have tried and

These songs composed by a Canadian, Mr. Gordon V. Thompson, of Toronto, are printed on splendid paper, regular sheet music size and just like the sheet music for which you pay 60c.

Thousands of these popular sacred songs have been sold throughout Canada. A friend who has had several years experience as choir soloist says of these:

"They are splendid. I must have each one of the ten at once. They will be fine, either for my own personal pleasure and entertainment, for singing in parlor gatherings, or for solo work in connection with our church choir. Mr. Thompson, the composer, must, in addition to being an excellent writer and composer of music, have had some very interesting and definite religious experiences, else he never could have worked in such lovely tones in the airs and such beautiful thoughts in the words."
