Young Men and Women

Getting Ready for Business

Thoughtful and ambitious young men and women take a look ahead. They do not idle away their time, but plan to put it in at those studies that will bring them business returns, later.

This is an age of business, and the best education that you possess will be strengthened by a course in this Business College.

- Book-keeping, Stenography,
- Typewriting, Penmanship,
- Business Law and Advertising

Proof of the character of our work is shown in the success that comes to our students in after business. One letter of many:

J. A. Simmers, Seedsman, Toronto—

"The students sent from your College recently, and a year ago, have turned out most satisfactory, taking up new subjects with promptness and accuracy, showing that your methods of training are of the right kind. I shall recommend your College in the important branches of stenography and typewriting."

Now is a good time to decide on entering as a pupil for the new fall and winter term that will open early in September. Handsome prospectus on application.
