WHAT LADIES' GLOVES AND JELLIES ARE MADE OF. How dashed with bitterness are all sublunary things Alas I the smaller kind of ladies' so-called kid-gloves are made chiefly out of rat-skins. The smaller the hand the more ratty the inference Parchment trimmings contribute in no small degree to the stock of a London pastry-cook's jelly-pot. It is said that a hiatus exists in the parchment documents of the Patent Office; a boy in the establishment having surreptitiously taken documents away and sold them to the confectioners! Very good jelly (scientifically speaking) can be manufactured of parchment; but, any person amenable to sentiment in the slightest degree, would spare his stomach some qualm by not inspecting the manufacture of parchment. Absolutely and rationally there is nothing repulsive in the idea of manufacturing ivory-dust into jelly; but how a fair creatureengaged in soft dalliance with a jelly—would pout and make wry faces, and thrust the jelly from her, if told, (which is the fact) that most of the ivory dust in question is purchased of the small-tooth comb makers .- Blackwood's Maguzine.

TRIED AND FOUND WANTING .- A fast Irishman, in a time of revival, joined the Church, but was found sinning grievously not long afterwards "Didn't you join the Methodists?" inquired a piously-disposed person "Faix an' I did -1 jined for six months, and behaved so well they let me off with three."

The manner in which they weigh a hog out West, it is said, is to put a hog in one scale and some rocks in the other and guess at the weight of the rocks.

THE HEIGHT OF EGOTISM .- Spurgeon lecturing on the Gorilla.

STRANGER IN TOWN .- We have been gratified by a call from Frederick Ayer Esq., the business man of the firm of J. C. Ayer & Co , Lowell. A short acquaintance with the gentleman convinces us that not the Doctor's skill in compounding his medicines is alone concerned in the immense consumption of them; but that it takes business talent of no ordinary measure to pass them around the world. Mr. Ayer, manifestly, has these abilities and the success of his house shows that he uses them. ["Memphis Whig " Tenn.]
