

1962

[The following text is extremely faint and largely illegible. It appears to be a document or report, possibly related to the disarmament conference mentioned in the header. The text is organized into several paragraphs, but the specific content cannot be accurately transcribed.]