

5. If a tariff cannot be agreed in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article, or if, during the period applicable in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Article, one aeronautical authority gives the other aeronautical authority notice of its disapproval of a tariff agreed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 the aeronautical authorities of the two Contracting Parties shall endeavour to determine the tariff by mutual agreement.

6. If the aeronautical authorities cannot agree on any tariff submitted to them under paragraph 3 of this Article, or on the determination of any tariff under paragraph 5 of this Article, the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article XX of this Agreement.

7. (a) No tariff shall come into force if the aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party are dissatisfied with it except under the provisions of Article XIX of this Agreement.

(b) When tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article, those tariffs shall remain in force until new tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article or Article XIX of this Agreement.

8. If the aeronautical authorities of one of the Contracting Parties becomes dissatisfied with or wishes to review an established tariff they shall notify the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party and the designated airlines shall attempt where required to reach an agreement. Should the designated airlines fail to agree, the procedures as set out in paragraph 5 and 6 of this Article shall apply.

9. The aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties shall endeavour to ensure that (A) the tariffs charged and collected conform to the tariffs accepted by both aeronautical authorities and (B) no airline rebates any portion of such tariffs by any means.

ARTICLE XV

Each Contracting Party shall cause its designated airline to communicate to the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party, as long in advance as practicable prior to the inauguration of the agreed service, the type of service, the type of aircraft to be used, the flight schedules, tariff schedules, and all other relevant information concerning the operation of the agreed services including such information as may be required to satisfy the aeronautical authorities that the requirements of this Agreement are being duly observed. The requirements of this Article shall likewise apply to any changes concerning the agreed services.

ARTICLE XVI

1. Each designated airline shall have the right to engage in the sale of air transportation in the territory of the other Contracting Party directly and, at its discretion,
