

11:00 - 12:15 p.m.

SESSION II: ENFORCEMENT ACTION

Introductory Remarks: Nicholas Stethem, Strategic Analysis Group

The possibilities offered by consensus in the Security Council. The proposals made in An Agenda for Peace (peace enforcement units, standing army) versus "coalition building." A look at recent cases: the Gulf War, Somalia. The future of peace enforcement in a chaotic world.

2:00 - 3:15 p.m.

Reports from the field: Experiences of specialists involved in the non-military aspects of strengthening peace and security.

R.A. Gould, Assistant Chief Electoral Officer, Elections Canada

Dr. Chris Giannou, the Canadian Red Cross Society

Robert Simmonds, Commissioner (retired), Royal Canadian Mounted Police

3:30 - 5:00 p.m.

SESSION III: PEACEBUILDING

Introductory Remarks: Nancy Gordon, CARE Canada

The reconstruction and rehabilitation phase: refugee resettlement, elections, democratic development, economic rehabilitation. Recent case studies such as Namibia and Cambodia. What happens when the troops leave?

5:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Wrap-up by the rapporteur, Alex Morrison, Canadian Institute of Strategic Studies

Closing comments by the Secretary of State for External Affairs