

ARTICLE 10

Both Governments will encourage and facilitate contacts and exchanges in the performing arts. They will encourage tours by groups such as theatre, opera, ballet, dance companies, orchestras and other artistic groups and by individual performers under commercial contracts or mutually acceptable arrangements made by Canadian organizations or impresarios and Soviet concert organizations. They will facilitate exchanges and visits in the performing arts of specialists such as playwrights, composers and choreographers and of other persons engaged in these fields.

ARTICLE 11

Both Governments will encourage and facilitate exchanges in the visual and creative arts. They will facilitate the organization of artistic, photographic and other exhibitions. They will also encourage exchanges and visits in the visual and creative arts of specialists such as artists and of other persons engaged in these fields.

ARTICLE 12

Both Governments will encourage and facilitate visits and exchanges of representatives at governmental level.

ARTICLE 13

Both Governments will encourage exchanges between appropriate professional and non-governmental organizations, having in mind that the practical realization of these exchanges shall be the concern of the organizations involved. They will encourage visits and exchanges by individuals in various cultural and professional fields, as well as their participation in meetings, conferences and symposia.

ARTICLE 14

Both Governments will encourage and facilitate exchanges of athletes and athletic teams, and of specialists in the fields of physical education, recreation and sport.

ARTICLE 15

Both Governments will encourage the development of tourist travel between the two countries.

ARTICLE 16

The contracting Governments shall establish a Mixed Commission, which will meet normally once every two years, alternately in Canada and the USSR. Each Party, in accordance with its procedures and practices, will designate its participants for each meeting. The Mixed Commission will concern itself with the implementation of this Agreement. At its meetings the Mixed Commission will review the progress of the existing Programme and develop a Programme for the next two-year period. Additions and modifications to Programmes for the implementation of this Agreement may be mutually agreed between meetings of the Mixed Commission.
