

2. Any high contracting party may give notice to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations at any time subsequently that he desires that the convention shall apply to all or any of his territories or to the parts of their population which have been made the subject of a declaration under the preceding paragraph, and the convention shall apply to all the territories or the parts of their population named in such notice six months after its receipt by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

3. Any high contracting party may, at any time, declare that he desires that the present convention shall cease to apply to all or any of his colonies, protectorates, overseas territories or territories under suzerainty or mandate, or in respect of certain parts of the population of the said territories, and the convention shall cease to apply to the territories or to the parts of their population named in such declaration one year after its receipt by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

4. Any high contracting party may make the reservations provided for in article 20 in respect of all or any of his colonies, protectorates, overseas territories or territories under suzerainty or mandate, or in respect of certain parts of the population of these territories, at the time of signature, ratification or accession to the convention or at the time of making a notification under the second paragraph of this article.

5. The Secretary-General of the League of Nations shall communicate to all the members of the League of Nations and non-member States mentioned in article 22 all declarations and notices received in virtue of this article.

ARTICLE 30

The present convention shall be registered by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations as soon as it has entered into force.
