WAR VETERANS ALLOWANCE ACT—
AMENDMENTS RECOMMENDED

Mr. Knowles:

1. Has the government received representations, at any time since November 12, 1953, asking that the War Veterans Allowance Act be amended so as to provide (a) for an increase in the amounts of the allowance payable thereunder; (b) for an increase in the total amount of income permissible to recipients of the war veterans allowance?

2. If so, from whom?

3. Have these matters been studied by the government, or by any officials thereof, since November 12, 1953, to determine whether or not such requests should be implemented?

4. If so, by whom?

5. Have any reports thereon, and any recommendations, been made to the Minister of Veterans Affairs?

6. Will legislation, based on such reports or recommendations, be recommended at this session?

Mr. Lapointe:

1. (a) and (b) Yes.

2. Commands and branches of veterans' organizations, Canadian non-pensioned veterans widows and some individuals.

3, 4 and 5. Studies of relevant facts have been made by officials of the Department of Veterans Affairs, who have reported to the minister. The government has had the representations and the reports under consideration.

6. It is not customary to forecast policy in giving answers to questions on the order paper.

NATIONAL FILM BOARD "EYE WITNESS" SERIES

Mr. Fraser (Peterborough):

1. What firm or firms were the distributing agents in 1953 for the national film board's "Eye Witness" series?

[Mr. Dickey.]

2. What is the total amount paid to the national film board for these films?

3. Does the national film board distribute these films in any other way?

4. If so, how?

5. What was the total cost of producing "Eye Witness" in 1953?

Mr. Harris:

1. (a) Canada.

Columbia Pictures of Canada, Ltd., handle the Canadian theatrical distribution of this series. The following theatre chains have shown the "Eye Witness" series and its French language counterpart, "Coup d'Oeil" during 1953-54:
