

Privilege—Mr. La Salle

that member is not in his seat to take the opportunity to comment in any way.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. On the last point raised by the minister, perhaps I should retrace what has taken place in respect of the motion. The first time the question was raised was after the hon. member had made his remarks. At that point I deferred the motion and consideration of the question of privilege until the following Monday. Because the hon. member was not in his place I again deferred it until Tuesday, at which time the House leader of that party, the hon. member for Lotbinière (Mr. Fortin), said he was prepared to have the matter discussed at that time.

Under those circumstances, I feel the House has extended to the hon. member for Témiscamingue every opportunity to discuss the motion. The question, therefore, is on the motion of the hon. member for Joliette, seconded by the hon. member for Peace River (Mr. Baldwin):

That the charge made by the hon. member for Témiscamingue, namely, that hon. members bribed reporters from the press gallery, be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the said motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the yeas have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members.

The house divided on the motion (Mr. La Salle) which was agreed to on the following division:

Mr. Speaker: Accordingly, I declare the motion carried.

[Translation]

Mr. Fortin: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order to explain the absence of the hon. member for Témiscamingue (Mr. Caouette). He has been detained in Rouyn because of the strike in Montreal.

If we have not voted, it is because we did like the Chair, we relied on the decision of the House.

Mr. Pelletier (Sherbrooke): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of privilege. When voting today, I had the impression I was settling two matters at the same time and I think when you vote "yea" or "nay"—

[English]

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The hon. member must know that no comment can be permitted on the casting of any vote in the House.
