

Old Age Security

Mr. Gauthier (Ottawa-Vanier): The motion reads:

—withdraw from the labour market, and also to provide for the basic amount of the pension payable under the Old Age Security Act, at age 60 for those not in the labour market—

I do not read anything into that.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Read the next four or five words.

Mr. Gauthier (Ottawa-Vanier): It reads “and to everyone at age 65”.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Precisely. “To everyone”.

Mr. Gauthier (Ottawa-Vanier): I see, but this is debate.

[Translation]

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Morin): Order, please. Before pointing out to the hon. member that it is now five o'clock, I take the liberty of reminding him that he must at all times address his remarks to the Chair and not to the members of the opposition.

The hour for the consideration of private members' business has expired.

It being five o'clock, the House stands adjourned until Monday at 2 p.m.

At 5 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.