

It is a very worthy cause, a great necessity that our city must realize and I feel sure cannot fail to do so, with your kind interest and name heading the list.

I wish you all the loyal support of thousands, who have this same desire in heart and mind, also the support of those who have been heretofore indifferent in the cause of musical advancement.

Believe me to be

Sincerely yours.

Edith Eager Ross.