The object is to help those who help themselves, by supplementing their payments to enable poor people to emigrate. The Club is now full of members wanting to emigrate.

Secondly, to organize Emigration Clubs throughout Great Britain, and Immigration Clubs in our Colonies, and in every way to promote emigration.

Any Donations in money, cheques, post-office orders, &c., or women's, men's, or children's clothes most thankfully received by, or communications addressed to, Rev. A. STYLEMEN HERRING, 45, Colebrooke Row, Islington Green, London.
