

GEORGE A. GARRISON,
NOTARY PUBLIC, FORWARDING AGENT, &c.

MOST RESPECTFULLY INTIMATES

To Gentlemen residing in the Country,
Merchants and Traders,

THAT he still continues to receive Goods, and forward the same to order, for persons who reside out of the City, and who find it inconvenient to give their personal attention. From his long practical experience in the Long Room of the Custom House, he flatters himself that no one is better qualified to attend to

DUTTABLE ARTICLES,

IN THE SEVERAL DEPARTMENTS CONNECTED WITH THE CUSTOM HOUSE AND TREASURY;

and from the encouragement he has hitherto received, and the satisfactory testimonials in his possession, he feels confident that he will be able to meet the wishes of those who may favour him with their business.

Saint John, 21st October, 1844.
