Committee Was Appointed to Consider Big Question of the Year.

The question as to whether the Ontario Medical Association should disassociate itself from the Canadin Medical Association was the most important subject brought up for consideration at the O. M. A. conference held at the medical building, Toronto University, yesterday afternoon.

It was moved by Dr. Wallace, seconded by Dr. Pawley that the matter be referred to a committee, who should be authorized to look into the matter thorly and report at a meeting to be held at a later date. After considerable discussion the resolution was adopted and the following committee appointed: Dr McGregor, London; Dr. Wilson, Niagura Falls; Dr.

foul play in connection with the death of Collins, who he claims was taken ill and went to the side of the dock, where he overbalanced himself and fell headlong into the water. In the darkness he was unable to locate Collins, who made no outcry. It is expected that Osborne will clear himself of suspicion at the inquest, before which he will be called to testify. Beyond a slight scar on the nose there are no marks on the body.

HIGHLANDERS PARADE FRIDAY

The 48th Highlanders will parade as usual at the armories on Friday night. The bands of the regiment will play from 9 till 10 and the galleries will be reserved for ladies and their escorts. On Sunday morning the regiment will parade to St. Andrew's Church at 11 o'clock, where the chaplain of the regiment, Rev. T. Crawfoord Brown, will preach. The regimental band will supply the music for the service. From present indications there will be a big contingent for the Petawawa manoeuvres.
