

Thee, we may so pass through things Temporal, that we finally lose not the Things Eternal. And to all those, who may be ordained to suffer for Thy sake, impart, O merciful Lord, such plentiful Succours of Thy Holy Spirit; pour into their Souls such Contempt of Pain and Death; kindle in their hearts such Love of Thee, and Zeal for Thy Truth; fill them with such animating Hope of Immortality, that, after the Example of the blessed Saints and Martyrs of the primitive Ages, they may so steadily confess Thee before Men, that having glorified Thy Name by their sufferings upon Earth, they may obtain of Thee an Everlasting Crown of Glory. And grant, to us all, such a denial of Ungodliness and wordly Affections, that we may be able to look forward with hope to the Consummation of all Things, and to the glorious appearance of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; to whom with Thee, O Father, and Thee, O Holy Ghost, be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

ALmighty God, who hast given us Grace at this time, with one accord, to make our common supplications unto Thee; and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name, Thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. XIII. 14.

THE Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
