

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
CHAPTER IV.
Neglect of the Mississippi Valley; Expedition of Lemaitre D'iberville—he Founda Settlements at Biloxi, Mobile, and Isle Dauphine; Tooti; Unprosperous Condition of Louisiana; Death of D'Iberville; his Brother Bienville; Croat; the Mississippi Company; Great Immigration, Suffering, and Mortality; New Orleans Founded; Continued Immigration; Vast Extent of Louisiana,.....	438
CHAPTER V.
Hostility of the Natches; their Injuries; Vain Remonstrance; Plan for the Destruction of the French; Massacre at Port Rooselle; Campaign against the Natches; Flight and Final Destruction of the Tribe; War with the Chicasaws; Disastrous Campaign of D'Artigrette and Bienville; Great Loss of the French and their Allies; Unsatisfactory Result of a Second Campaign,.....	443
CHAPTER VI.
Prosperity of Louisiana; Undisturbed by War; Sugar-cane Introduced; Commencement of Troubles with the English; the Ohio Company; Resisted by Du Quesne; the Virginia Expedition under Washington; War with the French of Canada, &c.; Taking of Fort Du Quesne; Overthrow of the French in Canada; Public Relinquishment of a Part of Louisiana to England, and Secret Cession of the Remainder to Spain; Vain Remonstrance,.....	445
CHAPTER VII.
Arrival of Ulloa as Spanish Governor—his Obedience—his Expulsion from the Country; Arrival of O'Reilly—his Perfidy and Cruelty; Five Citizens Executed; Tyranny of O'Reilly; Great Emigration from Louisiana—that Province Ejected to France—Sold by Napoleon to the United States,.....	448