

lent for this exhibition by the owner, H. T. Machin, Esq., Quebec.

No. 8.—Miss Katherine Lowther, the fiancée of General Wolfe, afterwards the Duchess of Bolton. The original miniature by the celebrated painter Cosway, is in the possession of Lord Barnard of Raby Castle, Darlington, who for the first time allowed it to be copied for "The Siege of Quebec." Wolfe carried the original in a locket until the eve of the battle, when he intrusted it to Lieut. Jervis. According to the instructions contained in Wolfe's will, the miniature was returned to Miss Lowther, after having been set in jewels to the value of five hundred guineas.

No. 9.—The Sword of Colonel Maloolm Fraser of the 78th. Highlanders at the Battle of the Plains. Kindly lent for this exhibition by the owner W. Fraser, Esq., of Fraserville.

No. 10.—Letter signed by the Marquis de Montcalm. And several letters from the representatives of the family of Montcalm, on the occasion of the ceremonies at the Ursuline Convent on the one hundredth anniversary of Montcalm's death, Sept 14th, 1859. Kindly lent for this exhibition by the owner, Madame Theophile Hamel, Quebec.

No. 11.—James Wolfe. Engraving by Hyatt, from the original in the British Museum, presented to the Nation by the King of the Belgians.

No. 12.—Death of Montcalm. Rare coloured engraving by Moret, Paris, 1787, with biographical notes.