ODDFELLOWS HONORED LATE GRAND SECRETARY

Services Were Impressively Conducted and Cortege Was Striking Tribute.

Nearly 1500 members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows crowded into Bond-street Congregational Church yesterday afternoon to witness and partake in the last sad rites over the body of their beloved comrade and grand secretary, J. B. King, who passed away at his residence at 54 St. Mary-street last Saturday. Flowers in beautiful profusion showed that the service was not alone of sadness, but also a promise of futurity, where life will not be as tale that is told. Several uniformed cantons marched in solemn order into the body of the church, while the other members, with the sisters, mothers, wives and friends, filled in the sides and gallery. The meeting followed a private service at the home, conducted by the late Grand Secretary of St. Paul's Anglican Church. Mr. Stauffer spoke of God's warning to Hezekiah, the good king of Israel, to prepare for death. "The last quarter of a century," said he, "people have come to think less of death's knock. And yet we must be careful to keep the happy medium, and not altogether disregard it for we are com-

STOLE FOR THE CHURCH

So French-Canadian Jury Refused to Convict A. J. Lemieux.

MONTREAL, March 28.—That the Catholic Church is superior to the criminal law of Canada, when the jury is a French-Canadian Catholic jury, is the evident meaning of the verdict in the Lemieux case to-day. A. J. Lemieux was charged with highway robbery of money and papers from L. Larose last autumn. He admitted taking the papers, but said he had returned the money, and pleaded that he was acting in the interests of the Catholic Church, as Larose was a Freemason, and secretary of the now famous Emancipation Lodge. It was to secure lists of names of members and other papers of the lodge that the theft was committed. His brother and two others who were with him, also acknowledged hiding up Larose, but they too pleaded the return of the money and the interest of the church. Judge Lavergne yesterday, in his charge to the jury, declared that no extraneous considerations as to the motives which prompted the prisoner in his alleged act should have any bearing upon the case. "You must not preach the gospel with a pistol," he said. The jury, after half an hour, returned a disagreement, but were locked up, and this morning they gave the verdict of not guilty.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The ferries Island Queen and John Hanlan were placed in commission yesterday afternoon, giving a forty-minute service. The Nettle Bly has been repaired and was again in service.

APPLICANTS MUST WAIT

Ontario Government Deferred Expected Official Appointments.

A report was current yesterday at the parliament buildings that the cabinet council was dealing with some of the vacancies in the government service. After the council adjourned, Sir James said to The World: "There are no appointments to be made." In connection with the vacant position of the superintendent of the insurance department, it is mentioned the name of Ernest E. Gunther, barrister.

THE BONES OF TECUMSEH

Proof to Be Offered of Identity of Remains Found Near Wallaceburg.

LONDON, March 28.—The opening up of a grave on St. Anne's Island, said to contain the bones of the great Indian Chief Tecumseh, brought considerable criticism on certain Wallaceburg citizens about a year ago. St. Anne's Island is a low, flat piece of land in the river channel west of Wallaceburg and had often been claimed to be the burial place of the Indian chief. Those who conducted the work of digging up the bones felt certain that they had the actual remains of Tecumseh, but there was instant criticism from various parts, not only over the unauthorized desecration of the grave, but also over the possibility of the bones not being those of Tecumseh at all. It is now stated that the board of trade of the town will bring forward evidence to prove that no mistake was made in opening the grave, and that it is really the bones of Tecumseh which were found. Part of this proof will be in an affidavit made by the board, sworn to by an aged Indian woman that the bones in the grave were those of Tecumseh. This old squaw is said to have been present when the grave was opened and to have made her statement there as well as elsewhere that the searchers were on the right track. Her statement is said to have been most emphatic in this respect, and this may count in showing the truth of the matter.

CONTROLLERS WORRY OVER PLANS OF C.P.R.

Right of Railway to Cross Streets on Level is Disputed by Civic Executive.

C.P.R. matters took up considerable of the attention of the board of control yesterday. The mayor thought something should be done regarding the level crossings at Spadina-avenue and Peter-street, while Controller Church saw in the plans for the government house property and adjacent holdings, a possible attempt to evade the valid decision. Controller Hoeken said it would be easier to regulate the traffic on the line crossing Spadina-avenue, which was purely for the purpose of handling local freight, than in regulating the freight and passenger traffic that will run through the south. The mayor explained to Controller Church that the valid order did not do away with all level crossings. In fact it permitted the existing level crossings for siding purposes when properly protected. The board must consider the possibility of eliminating the level crossings at Spadina-avenue and Peter-street.

ONTARIO ALERT

Chief Factory Inspector Gives Reassuring Statement re Fire Escapes.

J. Burke, chief factory inspector for Ontario, said yesterday he considered the province fairly well provided against such disasters as that of New York. "Of course, you can never tell what will happen in case of fire in a factory employing a large number of men and women." He did not think such a disaster could happen in Ontario. The factories were inspected twice a year or oftener. The Darling factory compared in proportions to the one in New York but it has two fire escapes and an iron stairway.

As Quickly As Water Dissolves Sugar

About the Time It Takes for a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to Work on the Food and Bring Relief.

TRIAL PACKAGE SENT FREE. There is no long wait between the time you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and the feeling of relief it will bring to an overloaded stomach. It gets busy in a fifty and quickly sets things to rights in that tired and disordered stomach. It goes right at the work of digesting the food it finds lodged there and in no time at all has things on the move—the gases cease forming, the breath is sweetened, the coating on the tongue disappears and you are no longer conscious that you even have a stomach. That is one of the chief recommendations for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets—that they don't take forever to accomplish the purpose for which you need them. It is just as if you put an extra stomach or two to work when you're needed help. You can't continually overload your stomach and expect it to always smile. It is going to get rebellious and sulky after awhile and refuse to go on being driven to do double duty. You must rest it occasionally—not by starving, and thereby weakening yourself physically—but by taking a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to do the work of digesting your food. These tablets contain all the active elements of the natural stomach juices but the same as the gastric juices. And nothing could be more harmless than these tablets. They do not affect the system in any way—do not cure any ailment except as they digest food. Use them freely. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists everywhere. Price, 25 cents per box. A trial package will be sent if you will write F. A. Stuart, Co., 350 Stuart Bldg., Marghul, Mich.

Didn't Use False Pretences.

Thos. McConnell was found not guilty of false pretences by a jury in the sessions court yesterday afternoon. The trouble arose over the proposed sale of a house between Mrs. Mollie Rotterbery and McConnell. She alleged the price was raised, and when she asked for $100 she had paid on deposit, was told that this was impossible. Restitution was made after the man's arrest.

A Valuable Water Power.

MONTREAL, March 28.—The great water power at Cedar Rapids was sold to Mr. D. L. McGibbon at a very large price to-day. Cedar Rapids are 27 miles from Montreal, and will generate 150,000 horsepower. The property has long been looked upon as extremely valuable in Montreal's power field. Mr. McGibbon stated that prominent power experts in Canada would devote their time to the project.

Father Morrissey's Remedies

When Father Morrissey, the famous priest-physician of Bartibogue, N. B., died a year ago last spring, he left his prescriptions to the Sisters of the Hotel Dieu, at Chatham, to be used for the benefit of humanity and of the church. Not being in position to make up and distribute the prescriptions themselves, the Sisters arranged with a number of gentlemen who had been Father Morrissey's friends, to care for them. These gentlemen working under the name of "Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Limited," had by the first of the year placed the remedies in nearly every store in the Maritime Provinces. So gladly were they received, and so satisfactory has been their record of cures, that the Sisters and the company have decided to place them on sale throughout Canada.

STOLE TO GET DEPORTED.

Albert Weaver wanted to get out of this country, even by deportation. Therefore he stole a bicycle and pedaled it to the States. So he has, for he will get his wish after sixty days, which he will serve in jail for the theft.

Metered Water Cheaper.

Some time ago the Western Hospital authorities asked the council to sell their water at the same rate as the General Hospital, which is 81 per cent for every six months. This was assented to, but the meter was left in and it was found that in the first six months the expense of buying water this way was $385, as compared with $110 shown by the meter readings for that period. The hospital has been under this arrangement for a year. In that time the difference between the meter readings and the charges under the arrangement has amounted to $225. Now the hospital authorities want to return to the meter and ask a refund of the $225. The board recommended that this be done.
