ST. BASS BEATS THE BEST CANADIAN OWNED HORSES

Wins Mile Race at Montreal, Ganegue Second, Stanley Fay Third and Chief Kee Outside Money.

the class of Stanley Fay and Chief Kee. Bass showed himself the best over a mile distance, the Ganogue, D. Lorne McGibbon's Chuctanunda filly, ran him a close second, the King's Plater giving Ganogue 18 pounds at that. Chief Kee was the ring selection for the race, with Stanley Fay a second choice. Right bang from the start, however, St. Bass looked the goods. He was first away from the gate, first out of the chute, and leading all the way round, but he just lasted, Stanley Fay coming strong at the finish. The win was a highly popular one with the crowd, and a good deal of the public money was banked on the Oakville colt's and a good deal of the public money was banked on the Oakvills colt's chances.

A killing was made on the carded feature of the day, the Jacques Cartier Stakes, when Spellbound, at one time as high as 5 to 1, beat the favorite, Hampton Court. Herbert Turner, an added starter, quoted at 2 to 1, threw a scare into the ring when he looked like coming home, but Spellbound's win by a nose quite did the business. Turner closed up for second, leaving the favorite to show. Most of the playing was purely sentimental. Spellbound ran a couple of good races here last fall, tho he did no better than third' on Saturday last. With the field against him, however, many of his old-time backers went to him again with dire results for the books. One Montreal hotelkeeper cleaned up twenty-five hundred dollars, and Sam Lichtenheim, the Montreal Baseball Club owner, cleaned up a thousand. One of the most interesting races of the day was the third on the card, which scratches dwindled virtually into a duel between Plate Glass and Priscillian, each carrying 116 pounds. Pagot, 60 to 1 shot, a rank outsider, finished third. Priscillian was offered at 1 to 3, with Plate Glass at 5 to 1, and for a while it looked as the the longer price was the right one. Dugan sent the gallant old son of Hastings along in the last half furlong just in time to get him under the wire a nose ahead of Plate Glass.

CLOSE AT LOUISVILLE Bettie Sue Paying $15,80 Wins toric Kentucky Oaks.

LOUISVILLE, June 8.-The spring neeting at Churchill Downs closed this afternoon most auspiciously with an attendance second only to that of Derby Day. The meeting from every standpoint was the best in the history of the track. The historic Kentucky Oaks, which has been run continously for thirty-seven years, was the feature of a brilliant card. The race resulted in a surprise, the winner turning up in Bettie Sue, which beat a small field. Princess Gallaway was second and Ilma third. House Mald took the handicap by a close margin from McIvor, with Winning Widow third. The great majority of the stables racing here will be shipped to Latonia for the meeting, commencing Saturday:

Week-End Sale Quite Brisk at Maher's Exchange

The week-end sale at Maher's yesterday turned out to be quite briek, and a large number of horses were disposed of. A number of out-of-town buyers were on the floor and bought several carloads. There was a fairly large number of offerings, and more than three-quarters of these were disposed of, tho the prices realized were nothing over the average. A few of the sales were: The Dominion Sewer Pipe Co., a high-class black gelding for their own work. L. Strother, city, a beautiful combination horse, a spetted gelding. Mr. James Armstrong, Moose Jaw, Sask., purchased 36 of the best horses obtainable in the stables to fill two car loads for western shipment. Wm. Smith, Listowel, got four good workers to ship. C. R. Christie, Coboconk, Ont., got a high-class black gelding to work. W. Johnston, Pickering, a team of black and hay mares, good worker type, for $150. Mr. J. Cake, Dufferin-street, a good bay mare for delivery purposes. The Metropolitan Mfg. Co., a delivery mare. R. H. Scott, city, got one of the finest ponies that have been seen here in some time, and paid a high price for her. The Toronto Street Railway Co. got three high-class workers. Jos. Davis, city, a good city worker, for $40. A. W. Raven, city, a good delivery horse for $140. R. J. Armstrong, city, a high-class heavy draught chestnut gelding to work. T.Finn. city, a good bay mare, city worker, for $42.50. AM. Gordon, Eglinton, a good bay selding, expresser. E. W. Loscombe, Bowmanville, a high-class heavy draught itorse. M. Fatton, Richmond Hill, a good serviceably sound brown horse. M. Quinlan, city, a worker for $45. W. Wakefield, city, another worker for $45. W. Wakefield, city, another worker for $45. W. Menary, city, got half a car load of the cheaper classes, Mr. Fixsimmons, city, a good worker for $70. The Coulter Transfer Co. got a good expresser. Mr. James Woods, a fair heavy worker. The result of the sale pleased the management exceedingly, and they advise large fresh consignments for sale on Monday next, and refer all interested for parti

BILLY LAVELLE The Durham boy, who has finally decided to play this season on the Toronto N. L. U. team.

Noah Henline, the Buffalo centrefielder, surprised the Buffalo bublic when he appeared in a uniform for yesterday's game. Henline was in a motor boat which burned to the water's edge on Niagara River the other day. With him at the time were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eldring of Buffalo and a Miss Bradaireet. The engine back-fired, causing the gasoline to catch fire. According to a report published, Henline was so badly burned as to be laid up for several weeks. Instead of being laid up, he was the first one at the park and was only slightly burned.

Reproductions of some very fine animal pictures, the work of W. Kishnert, and displayed by the London Fine Art Society, are shown in this week's Sunday World.

BERLIN GAYER THAN PARIS.

"Paris. gay and delirious Paris, that one we knew and read about, has become a back number compared with Berlin," remarked Henry Herzog, an American citizen, who has been living some time in Germany, the land of his birth. "I lived a long time in St. Louis after coming to this country, and had not been in Berlin for a long time until recently. I was amazed to find that the old-time frivolity and high links for which Paris was so long celebrated were in much fuller swing in the one-time staid and solid German capital than ever on the banks of the Seine. The wonder once was if the gay ones of Paris ever slept. Now you ask, When does Berlin sleep? There are crowds on the streets and in the cafes night and day, a swirl of people that seems to have no beginning or end.
