

The World's Daily Home Magazine for Women

Edited by.....
Irene Currie Love

Fight Hard Against Letting The World Make You Bitter

No matter how roughly life may treat you, fight desperately hard against allowing yourself to grow hard and bitter. A woman's sweetness and gentleness are her greatest charms, and her strength and capital is to lose all loveliness.

You may have the hardest kind of luck; everything may go wrong; but as long as you are brave and sweet over it you will at least have the sympathy of your friends.

If your misfortunes turn you crabbed and bitter, no one will feel one bit sorry for you.

A cynical woman turns all the milk of human kindness into vinegar. According to her creed there is nothing good and nothing true. She ascribes false motives to every kindness.

To be sweet-tongued, to take things bravely and cheerfully, and not to take offence at every fancied slight, should be the aim of every girl who desires to make herself popular.

Half the time when you take offence the cause lies in your own imagination. Do not advise you to be poor-spirited and to allow yourself to be imposed upon, but merely to use your common sense and look well into a thing before you fly off the handle and look upon yourself as insulted.

There is a vulgar woman who is always repeating herself. Sometimes she is not the least bit what she says. When she is in that mood, she always leaves her friends, and when she comes back, she is as good as a new woman.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

Woman is supposed to be lovable and gentle. That is one reason why men seek her. A selfish, mean-spirited woman is a curse to the world. She is a source of trouble to all who come in contact with her.

ous, and will take the side of the person you are reviling.

If you can't bring yourself to be charitable, keep quiet and don't say anything.

Remember always, "Least said soonest mended."

People grow extremely weary of the person who never sees the nice side of things or of people.

If everyone is down on you and you have no friends, the fault is yours alone, you may be quite sure of that.

The sunny-hearted, sweet-tempered people are the ones who hold their friends. Bitterness and gloom will drive everyone away from you.

Sweetness and gentleness are the qualities that make a girl most lovable.

What we might call "brummagen" jewelry is the rule nowadays rather than an exceptional vulgarity, as it would once have been called. The art nouveau designs of bijouteries are responsible, for in their anxiety to exploit their novel and very beautiful and artistic designs they have used the imitation gems in their workmanship, realizing that the very oddity of their design precluded the use of natural stones.

And, too, beautiful and very costly jewels would, if it were not for their use of the imitation, be constantly undergoing the process of transformation in the effort to keep up the ever-shifting fashion in artistic workmanship. However, the term false or imitation jewelry is never used; stones are "reconstructed," or they are "mechanical." There are several places in Paris which deal entirely in this kind of jewelry. They look to the casual passer-by like the most serious and beautiful and all the small diamonds used in the settings are true stones.

The Beauty Mania.

The fad for grooming and improving the skin and hair has grown to such proportions that it's a positive craze. It's two-thirds absurd and seventeighths productive of disastrous results. I hope my equation works out right mathematically! Whether the work is done at home according to directions given in beauty recipes, or is accomplished in a high-priced establishment where all sorts of new fangled treatments are in vogue the effect is unmistakable. Too much massage takes the life out of the skin and gives it a fragile and pulpy look. Sometimes it makes the cheeks baggy at the jaws. When the wrong sort of skin food is used, open pores result and the texture of the skin is spoiled. In the same way the overmailed head comes to resemble a hairdresser's block, and the figure too tightly laced loses all its natural grace. The beauty mania succeeds in turning herself from an ordinarily good looking woman into a fright and ages herself ten years. One trouble is that women take one another's prescriptions and use them indiscriminately, all the same cream or lotion is not suited to all skins. In this matter, as in all others pertaining to the body, what is good for one may be injurious to another.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Sanders, who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Denison, during the winter, returned to Chatham yesterday.

Mrs. Charles B. Doherty, announces the engagement of her daughter, Ethel Margaret, to Frank Joseph Fox. The marriage will take place June 1.

The wedding of Miss Essey Case, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Case, Spadina-road, to Captain Chas. Straubenzee, R.C.D., son of the late Colonel Straubenzee, will take place on Wednesday, June 5.

Among the many interesting weddings announced to take place next month is that of Miss Eva May Acheson, daughter of Mr. William Acheson of Goderich, and Philip Holt Horton, of the staff of the Bank of Montreal, Brockville, Ont.

Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy of New Dorchester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Louise, to Roy L. Hardison, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morgan, Dean of the Crown Bank, Woodstock, second son of Rev. Francis Morgan, Dean, M.A., T.C.D.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Louise, to Roy L. Hardison, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morgan, Dean of the Crown Bank, Woodstock, second son of Rev. Francis Morgan, Dean, M.A., T.C.D.

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

Py Dustus Forman.

-Published by Arrangement With Harper & Brothers

The World's Serial Story.

Buchanan's Wife

World Pattern Department

1858—Ladies' Jumper.

Another development of the jumper is shown in this pretty over waist.

Made of white messaline laced with silk cords, it is worn over a net or lace gimp waist having full puff sleeves. Although appropriate for silk than any other material, it could also be made in linen with a skirt to match and the gimp waist contrasting.

The pattern is in 6 sizes—32 to 42 inches, bust measure. For 36 bust, the jumper needs 7 yards of material 29 inches wide, or 1-1/4 yards 36 inches wide, or 1-1/8 yards 42 inches wide; 4 yards of cord.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

Pattern Department

Toronto World

Send the above pattern to

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

Size Wanted—(One size of Child's, or Miss' Pattern.)

of them she heard Faring stir in his chair, stir and draw a great, deep breath. Quite suddenly he rose before her. She could not see his face, but he moved forward. Then he put out the arms which had for three months bounded her world and his, and took her in them. She gave a little shiver, which she thought was a scream, and she knew that he had forgotten how strong he was and was hating her. Then for an unmeasured space he kept nothing more, because she had faintly quivered, and was hanging on to him. He had never before, where she had thought never to lie again.

Long afterwards, when she had come to her senses, the two clung weakly, in the dark, and Beatrice wept, weakly, in the dark. "Oh, Harry, Harry!" she said. "Oh, Harry, I am mad or you are mad, or this is not real at all. Think what have done. Think! Have utterly ruined your life and mine—ruined it hideously, yet you hold me in your arms. One of us is mad, or both."

"Oh, you like," said he. "I don't know. I know only that I can't seem to care. What you did, Betty, you did me wrong. I was wrecked—ruined. Oh, yes, I suppose so. But in any case we're wrecked together, and I can't seem to care very much what happens so long as it leaves you and me together. Maybe I've something the matter with my morals, too, as you say you have."

"Together!" said the woman, in a whisper, and as they sat in the gloom, passed her hand over his forehead, and pressed closer to him in the dark. He drew her up until her face lay in the hollow of his throat as they used to sit.

"I don't care," said Faring, stubbornly. "If you have forty husbands alive, I won't give you up. I won't go away from you, and if you should try to go away from me I'd lock you up and keep the key. I won't lose you now, I can't."

She gave a great cry.

"Oh, Harry, Harry!" she said. "do you mean that? Do you truly mean that? You'd stick to me in spite of everything? You wouldn't cast me off now that you know what I've done?"

"Try to leave me and see," said the man, and at the little note of fierceness in his tone she cried out again and pressed closer to him in the dark. He drew her up until her face lay in the hollow of his throat as they used to sit.

"Oh, my dear," said he, "shall you be the only one whose love is great enough to override law? Shall you shame me by loving the more—Law, principle, honor? I cannot make their call ring very loudly. Love's so much the bigger thing. In the beginning, perhaps, I don't know. Now we've gone much too far to give each other up for any earthly reason or scruple. Neither of us could live, I think, without the other."

"It's horribly, hideously wrong," she said.

"Oh, yes," said he. "It's wrong. I know, but it's inevitable. We can't stop now. We're two guilty souls, Betty, clinging together in the dark, but clinging together we must for all time, whatever comes."

To Be Continued.

No coarseness in WINDSOR TABLE SALT. Fine and pure as newly-fallen snow—so rich in delicious flavour, once used, always used.

52

World Pattern Department

1858—Ladies' Jumper.

Another development of the jumper is shown in this pretty over waist.

Made of white messaline laced with silk cords, it is worn over a net or lace gimp waist having full puff sleeves. Although appropriate for silk than any other material, it could also be made in linen with a skirt to match and the gimp waist contrasting.

The pattern is in 6 sizes—32 to 42 inches, bust measure. For 36 bust, the jumper needs 7 yards of material 29 inches wide, or 1-1/4 yards 36 inches wide, or 1-1/8 yards 42 inches wide; 4 yards of cord.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

Pattern Department

Toronto World

Send the above pattern to

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

Size Wanted—(One size of Child's, or Miss' Pattern.)

of them she heard Faring stir in his chair, stir and draw a great, deep breath. Quite suddenly he rose before her. She could not see his face, but he moved forward. Then he put out the arms which had for three months bounded her world and his, and took her in them. She gave a little shiver, which she thought was a scream, and she knew that he had forgotten how strong he was and was hating her. Then for an unmeasured space he kept nothing more, because she had faintly quivered, and was hanging on to him. He had never before, where she had thought never to lie again.

Long afterwards, when she had come to her senses, the two clung weakly, in the dark, and Beatrice wept, weakly, in the dark. "Oh, Harry, Harry!" she said. "Oh, Harry, I am mad or you are mad, or this is not real at all. Think what have done. Think! Have utterly ruined your life and mine—ruined it hideously, yet you hold me in your arms. One of us is mad, or both."

"Oh, you like," said he. "I don't know. I know only that I can't seem to care. What you did, Betty, you did me wrong. I was wrecked—ruined. Oh, yes, I suppose so. But in any case we're wrecked together, and I can't seem to care very much what happens so long as it leaves you and me together. Maybe I've something the matter with my morals, too, as you say you have."

"Together!" said the woman, in a whisper, and as they sat in the gloom, passed her hand over his forehead, and pressed closer to him in the dark. He drew her up until her face lay in the hollow of his throat as they used to sit.

"I don't care," said Faring, stubbornly. "If you have forty husbands alive, I won't give you up. I won't go away from you, and if you should try to go away from me I'd lock you up and keep the key. I won't lose you now, I can't."

She gave a great cry.

"Oh, Harry, Harry!" she said. "do you mean that? Do you truly mean that? You'd stick to me in spite of everything? You wouldn't cast me off now that you know what I've done?"

"Try to leave me and see," said the man, and at the little note of fierceness in his tone she cried out again and pressed closer to him in the dark. He drew her up until her face lay in the hollow of his throat as they used to sit.

"Oh, my dear," said he, "shall you be the only one whose love is great enough to override law? Shall you shame me by loving the more—Law, principle, honor? I cannot make their call ring very loudly. Love's so much the bigger thing. In the beginning, perhaps, I don't know. Now we've gone much too far to give each other up for any earthly reason or scruple. Neither of us could live, I think, without the other."

"It's horribly, hideously wrong," she said.

"Oh, yes," said he. "It's wrong. I know, but it's inevitable. We can't stop now. We're two guilty souls, Betty, clinging together in the dark, but clinging together we must for all time, whatever comes."

To Be Continued.

No coarseness in WINDSOR TABLE SALT. Fine and pure as newly-fallen snow—so rich in delicious flavour, once used, always used.

52

DEATH OF G. F. MARTER

ILLNESS FROM DIABETES

Former Conservative Leader in Legislature Succumbs to Diabetes.

George F. Marter, ex-M.L.A., at one time leader of the Conservative opposition in the Ontario legislature, and well known as a temperance leader in the province, died early yesterday morning at his home, 12 Elm Grove-avenue, Mr. Marter had been confined to his bed for some time with diabetes and his death was not unexpected.

All the members of his family were present at his bedside.

The late Mr. Marter was a member of Dunn-avenue Methodist Church, and a public service will be held for him in the church.

The funeral will take place on Monday next. A private service for the family will be held at 10 a.m. at the residence, conducted by the deceased's pastor, Rev. W. H. Hincks. At 10.30 the body will be removed to Dunn-avenue Methodist Church, where the public service will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. W. H. Hincks will conduct the service, in which Rev. J. A. Rankin, D.D., Rev. Dr. German and Rev. R. N. Burns, D.D., of Brampton, will take part.

There will be six pallbearers, two being from the Dominion Alliance, two from the Y.M.C.A., and two from the church.

The service will be over by 3 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to Mount Pleasant Cemetery for interment.

Born in 1840.

The late George Frederick Marter was the eldest son of the late Dr. Peter Marter of England and his wife, Augusta, daughter of Hon. Harris Hatch of St. Andrews, New Brunswick.

George F. Marter's father came from Nova Scotia to Brantford and at the latter town, on June 6, 1840, the late Mr. Marter was born.

He was educated in the Brantford Grammar School and early in life engaged in business as a merchant, during which time he became one of the prominent business men of his town and district and took an active part in municipal affairs, holding a seat in the council of Waterloo, and for some years the position of clerk for the Township of Wyndham.

He afterwards removed to Muskoka, where he resided for many years as one of the leading townsmen of Gravenhurst, which he represented as reeve until his ability sent him to the Ontario legislature in 1886, as the representative of the electors of Muskoka.

Elected Conservative Leader.

</