Mr Reuben Petch is a resident of ille, who has been known to the that he was pronounced incurable, Mr. Petch has been brought back almost to his former health. This restoration he attributes to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and knowing that his story would interest the readers of The Monitor, a reporter was sent to interview him. The following is Mr. Petch's narrative as given the reporter:

"I had been sick for some five years. I consulted in that time with no less than six of the best physicians I could find, but none seemed to help me so far as medicine was concerned. My limbs round not even optimized food, and I had to be fed with a spoon. I seemed to have lockjaw. I could not get up or down the doorsteps, and if I fell down I had to lie there until I was helped up. I could not get around without a cane and a crutch. My flesh seemed to be dead. You might have made a pincushion of me and I would feel no hurt. The doctors told me I could never get better. They said I had palsy on one side, caused by spinal sclerosis, the effect of la grippe. You might roast me and I would not sweat. I was a member of the Mutual Aid Association of Toronto. and, as under their rules I was entitled to a disability insurance, I made application for it. I was examined by two doctors on behalf of the Association and pronounced pertheir rules I was entitled to a disability finsurance, I made application for it. I was examined by two doctors on behalf of the Association and pronounced permanently disabled, and was, in due time, paid my disability insurance of $1500. This was about two years after I first took sick. Things went on in this way for a considerable period, and my helplessness was, if anything, on the increase. I was continually reading about the cures through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and at last determined to try them. After using four or five boxes there was a change. It first made itself manifest by my beginning to sweat freely. I made up my mind to give them a thorough trial, and, to my surprise, I have gained in the content of the company is said to be a good one, and the specialities introduced very pleasing and hew. Matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

This strong testimony proves the claim made that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail, and that they deserve to rank as the greatest discovery of modern medical science. The public should always be on their guard against imitations and substitutes, which some unscrupulous urge upon purchasers. There is no other remedy "just the same as" or "just as good" as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the genuine always have the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, on the wrapper

ANOTHER EXPEDITION FOR PEARY.

The Arctic Explorer Does Not Remain in Civilization Very Long.

Washington, April 17.—The Navy Department is making a great mystery over its action in detaching Civil Engineer R. E. Peary from the Brooking Navy Yard and placing him on waiting orders. It was said yesterday that the order had been issued at Lieut. Peary's request and that he gave no reason in his application. Today, however, it was learned that Lieut. Peary contemplated another exploring expedition and had so informed the department, but for some reason it was desired to keep this information secret.

"Lost in New York."

Among the many sensational and realistic dramas that visit this city during the season, none is more deservedly popular than Colton & Ryno's the Toronto Opera House next week. The play is good, strong, clean-cut nelodrama, with all the virtues and none of the faults of the usual plays of this kind. The story is full of heart interest and teaches a good moral lesson. The scenery this season is said to be more elaborate and beautiful than ever, the following scenes, painted by Mr. Arthur Voegtlen of Hoyt's Madison Square Theatre, New York, being particularly effective: Grammercy Square, showing the home of the late Samuel J. Tilden; Randall's Island Insane Asylum, Madison Square Garden (illuminated), the East River by moonly light and New York harbor at night, showing the shipping of all nations at anchor in the foreground, and the

I began taking them when all other medicines and the doctors falled to do me any good. I could not get off my chair without help. I never expected to get better, but Pink Pills have rescued me from a living death, and now I am happy to say I can work and walk and get around finely. I eat heartily, sleep soundly, and feel like a new man, and I ascribe the cause entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I cannot say too much in their praise, and recommend them highly to all similarly afflicted."

The splendid band of 50 members gave one concert in Boston on Tuesday night last, and was most enthusiastically applauded throughout the entire performance. The press notices say: "One of the evening's successes was Mr. Innes' trombone playing, his performance of Schumann's 'The Two Grenadiers,' exciting a stormy demonstration, also a rendering of the Miserer from 'Il Trovatore,' the solos being played by the cornet and trombone. The technique of the band was best illustrated by its rendering of Richard Strauss' difficult 'Frolics of Till Eulenpiegel.' The band will compare favorably with any others that have visited Boston."
