

T. EATON CO. LIMITED "CANADA'S GREATEST STORE." Reception Days in Dress Goods!

On Monday next and the following days this store will hold formal receptions in Spring Dress Goods and Silks—an occasion that ought to create a country-wide interest. Weeks ago we began preparations for this event by sending our expert buyers to the world's leading marts in search of the new, the novel and the fashionable in dress fabrics. England, France, Germany and Switzerland were visited, and the newest and best of their productions collected with extreme care.

- French Dress Patterns, 6 1/2 yards, at $7 to $25. English Coat and Plain Suitings at 50c to $1.50 a yard. Scotch and French Plaids and Checks at 25c to 95c a yard. All-wool Fancy Colored Dress Fabrics at 40c to $1 a yard. Silk and Wool Novelty Cloths at 75c to $2 a yard. Priestley's Black All-wool Fabrics, 75c to $2.50 a yard.

There is no disputing the leadership this store has attained in the Dress Goods trade. We have been emphasizing it for years, and every season it becomes more in evidence—never so much as this season. It is readily recognized in our greater varieties, finer qualities, better values and larger assortment of exclusive novelties. Come on Monday, for it is yours to enjoy at your pleasure and leisure. We know you'll be interested. As a matter of fact, you cannot keep in touch with the dictates of Fashion without knowing what we have to offer.

Mail Orders filled promptly and samples sent to any address. Every attention paid to the wants of out-of-town customers, and satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Japanese Rugs. Some interesting news about Floor Coverings. The first arrival of the season. A shipment of Japanese Rugs and Matting. Our own importation direct from Japan. WHAT MR. WHITNEY HAS DONE. He has beaten out Mr. Hardy. He has beaten him out despite the large sum of money supplied by the Government at Ottawa, by the lumbermen, by the others dependent on the office-holding vote, Federal and Provincial. In spite of the intimidated vote, such as that connected with the liquor trade. Public opinion has declared for Mr. Whitney and against Mr. Hardy. It has declared for a change. The Globe is trying its best to stifle this demand for a change. But Mr. Hardy cannot escape. It may take three months, six months, to get him out, but out he's got to come. The people are against him; the free electorate have ordered him to quit the office. The decision of the courts will be against the Liberals in the disputed election contests. The recounts will be against him. When a Government pulls through an election with a small but sufficient majority, it can build up that majority out of the bye-elections; but when it is beaten or tied in the general election, and the people have declared against it, there is no hope for it. Its position steadily grows worse, not better.

STATE OWNERSHIP OF RAILWAYS. A short time ago, The World, in referring to this subject, showed that a special session of the Federal Assembly of Switzerland was held in September last to consider the purchase of certain railways in that country, the object of the purchase of these being held by the State under contracts with the companies. At that meeting of the Assembly, a resolution was passed by the Swiss Government to consider the purchase of the railways by the Swiss Government on certain terms embodied in the resolution. Under the constitution of that country a bill passed by the Federal Assembly does not become law until after the expiration of 90 days, in order to give the people an opportunity to express their opinion. It is now announced that this referendum relative to the purchase of the railways has resulted in the popular approval.

FIGHTING REV. OF ST. ALBY. The western terminus of the Crow's Nest Railway is at Robson. The directors of the C.P.R. announce in their annual report that in the interests of the company it is necessary to extend the line westward from Robson to the Boundary Creek district, a distance of 100 miles. The work of this extension is to be undertaken by the end of the year. That the C.P.R. should decide to extend its tracks to this district is not surprising. The country to be traversed by the railway is referred to in the report as "the richest district yet discovered in the province." It is surprising that the C.P.R. does not propose to ask the Dominion Government for a bonus in connection with the building of the extension. For the Crow's Nest Line proper, the C.P.R. received a bonus of $1,000 a mile, in addition to a large land grant from the British Columbia Government. The company will receive a land grant from the Provincial Government for the 100 miles' extension into the Boundary Creek country, but it appears that no supplementary aid will be made on the Dominion Treasury. For which the company has been the reason that influenced the company not to approach the Government for the usual bonus we do not know, but it is just possible that the directors have concluded that the limit of forbearance on the part of the people of Canada, in regard to the demands of their company, has been reached. At any rate, we have it as a fact that no subsidy is to be asked from the Government. It is on occasions of this kind that the patriotism and moral excellence of The Globe shines to advantage. The Globe is today as bold as a lion in its opposition to any proposal for bounting the Boundary Creek extension. We are told that "there can be no grounds for dependence upon the public aid." And "it has also dawned on the people of Canada that they have been altogether too generous in the matter of grants and bounties." The Globe, in short, is prepared to put up a fight against the C.P.R. in this connection with its Boundary Creek extension. But there is nothing to fight about. The C.P.R. does not intend to make another raid on the Public Treasury. The Globe merely too generously offers to show how courageous, how patriotic, how moral it really is. When the C.P.R. held up the country to the tune of $3,000,000 in money and six times as much in coal lands, the Globe sided with the banditti, aiding and abetting them while they robbed the country. To-day, when the banditti are harmless and pliant, the Globe assures us it will fight them to the bitter end. The Globe is more than anxious to regain its reputation for political honesty and virtue, but its efforts in this direction only render its lapses from the path of rectitude the more conspicuous and glaring. Why doesn't The Globe admit the corn at once that it is not one whit more virtuous than the party it champions?

THE BONDING PRIVILEGE. The action of the Wabash Railway in leasing the Grand Trunk's Southern division for a long term of years would seem to indicate that the United States railway men entertain little apprehension of the bonding privilege, being interfered with. It was only on the first day of the present month that the Wabash took possession. This makes the second big American railway system that takes advantage of the short cut through Ontario, from Buffalo to the Western States. The abrogation of the bonding system would make the valuable property of the Michigan Central Railway in Canada almost worthless. The Americans will think twice before they become a party to a proposal which involves such loss to their own people. Not only are the American lines in Canada of great service to the people of the United States, but Canadian railways in the United States are no less economical and convenient to them. The Canadian Pacific has many friends in New England and the American Northwest. This was set out clearly by Senator Nelson in his speech on the Elkins proposition to repeal the bonding law. "We have," he said, "other interests than those of the railroad trunk lines. At the further end of Lake Superior there is located a great empire of five or six millions of farmers, and the interests of those farmers are of far higher consideration than are the interests of the railroads, however important they may be to their owners." Continuing, he said that the Canadian Pacific road had brought to these farmers a reduction amounting to an average of about 10 cents a bushel on the transportation of their products to the Atlantic seaboard. Why, he asked, should this advantage be destroyed in the interests of a few stockholders and bondholders in the United States? He asserted that Mr. Elkins' proposition was a blow at the American farmer, and to get him into the caldron of the railroad and there to roast and singe him without mercy.

The Federal Life Assurance Company. The 16th annual meeting of the Federal Life Assurance Company took place in the city of Hamilton on Tuesday last. The president, Mr. J. H. Smith, presided. The directors presented an excellent report, which showed that during the year 1897 the company had received an increase of capital stock, shows an increase of $1,000,000. The income, exclusive of the purchase of $114,750, and the assets an increase of $1,147,500. The income, exclusive of the purchase of $114,750, and the assets an increase of $1,147,500. policy like a stone wall, between her and poverty. "You do not need to bother about the first year's bill will be making over your wife in the first instance. Have you made the provision? "There is a great deal better thing than digging gold. It is to be found in doing good—all the good you can. You are getting in a way toward it when you insure your life in favor of the girl you may love behind you. "Life insurance has been described by some thoughtful man as 'a step toward the abolition of poverty,' and that of speculation. As our Celtic friends would say, 'true for you.' "Are you the man who is so healthy that you have thus far got off getting your life insured? Do you think you have a cinch on life? Healthier men than you may have died very suddenly—miserably. "You may aver your love as much as you like if you show none in your actions you have none. Insure your life. Act. Do it now. "In purchasing a life insurance policy remember the best is always the cheapest. You want a contract giving you privileges and advantages, so that it may be considered about the best policy obtainable. "Communicate with the North American Life Assurance Company, head office Toronto, and you can certainly obtain just what you want."
