The stereoption views in the school house last night were very instructive to the large audience of children present, and they heartily enjoyed the comic pictures. The views represented the seven wonders of the world and a series of scenes of note l fereign places of interest.

The question of the postmastership of the Eglinton office has not yet been set-tled, and it is rumored that the party pull is being used to secure it for a local Lib-tled, and it is rumoged that the party pull is being used to secure it for a local Liberal.

Captain Morris of the Salvation Army will present a series of stereopticon views to the Sunday school children of the Eglinton Methodist Church to-night. Refreshments will also be served by the ladies of the church during the evening.

The committee appointed to interview the city council regarding the annexation of Deer Park to the city will report back to a meeting at the school house to-night. Some definite action in the matter is expected from this meeting, and the gathering promises to be a representative one.

Toronto Industrial Exhibition. Ottawa, April 7.—W. McNaught, president, and Dr. J. Orlando Orr, manager of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition, are in the city. They are here on a variety of matters. One is to urgathe government to give a prize of $500 for the best stallion, calculated to produce carriage and saddle horses. They duce carriage and saddle horses. They salso want to close accounts in connection with the $50,000 grant to the Toronto Exhibition last year, and to have addtions made to the mineral exhibit. An effort will likewise be made to find out when Canadian live stock will be shipped to St. Louis, so that there will be no clash with the Toronto Exhibition.

"By Right of Sword,"direct from its tritupphant run at the New York American Theatre, with Ralph Stuart in his original role of Richard Hamilton, comes to the Grand next week. The scenes are laid in Ressia, which gives opportunity for picturesque scenic environment and gorgeous costuming. The first act is at a military ball in Moscow. The succeeding acts show striking scenes in and around the ancient Russian capital. Mr. Stuart not only proves pre-eminence with the sword, but his skill in light comedy, as well as strenuous situations. He is supported by a capable company, including the beautiful California ingenue, Miss Lillian Albertson.

"In Convict's Stripes." a startling melo-

"In Convict's Stripes," a startling melodrama of heart interest, will be the attraction at the Majestic Theatre next week. The action takes place in the far south, and gives much opportunity for local color and quaint character sketching. The climaxes are thrilling, and the great scene in the third act, wherein the working of a southern convict camp is shown, is one long to be remembered. The production is a most careful and generous one.

When the curtain is rung up on the High' Rollers Extravaganza Company at the Star Theatre on Monday next, the show begins with the laughable farce, "Oh, What a Night," the salient features of which are elever parodies on current folbles of the day. The specialties comprise the trio Leiljotts, musical acts; Franklin Sisters, song and dances; Howe and Scott, Hebrew comedians; Abble Carlton and her art ideals; the three Armstrongs, trick and fancy bicycle riders. The closing burlesque is, "In the Heart of New York."

Corpse at Window a Week.

Somerville, Mass., April 7.—Over a week ago the neighbors of Mrs. Lydia Parker, a white-haired woman of 10, noticed her sitting at the window of her home, looking out over the street where she lived. They saw her here every day in the same pose, placid and smiling. Some of them remarked about it and smiled. Mrs. Parker did not go out of doors much and bought her groceries once a week. No one called to see her. She sat in the window all day long Easter Sunday, then Monday and Tuesday. Fo-day the neighbors told the police, and they broke in the door. The old woman was dead, and had been all the time.
