Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) NUJOL Dept., 26 Broadway, New York City.

I am a married man, and we have three children. My wife, like most other women-so the family physician tells me-suffers from constipation. With the first two we had great trouble while they were nursing, all because of the fact that it was necessary for my wife to take medicine for constipation, as a result of which the children not only suffered, but were pale and cross, until they were large enough to eat for themselves. With our last child the same trouble began, and the physician when called on for medicine, said "My! My! it's impossible to give anything that will not hurt the babe." This put me to thinking, and as I had used NUJOL, I finally persuaded my wife to try it, and it proved as I suspected. It relieved the mother without hurting or affecting the babe. As a result we have the healthiest, happiest child [Name and address on request.]
