On Behalf of Babies. Dear Miss Grey: I have thought of writing, so here goes now. Was wondering if any Pageite would send in any of the following recollections I like them so well. I recited them a few years ago, but can't remember them now. "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," "The Lips That Touch Liquor Shall Never Touch Mine," and "Whistling in Heaven."

Am sending in a recipe for apple-sauce, which always find very satisfactory. I wonder how many readers know that if you have a bowl of apple-sauce, it can be put in a cake and be just as good as the best? The soda does the deed. Not necessarily apple-sauce, as I use pears, rhubarb or peaches that way. Anyone trying recipe will let us know how they get along. I hope.

Before I close may I speak just a word in behalf of babies? Do keep the wee tots as quiet as possible. They are three and have been told so often that they were such good babies. Let the babies sleep and if they are properly fed and cared for they will be good. When callers and visitors come in see baby I pull down the covers of the little bed and let them see him, but he is left to sleep. Sometimes it doesn't seem very polite, but baby's welfare comes first, and as I do my own work and live on a farm, it means a great deal to have them good.

What! My time up already, and I have only said a word. Well, I'll say no more. Having three little chicks I will sign myself, BIDDY.

Inclosed find 50 cents—25 cents for the prisoners' fund and 25 cents for the poor Belgian babies.

And you are dear "Biddy-hen," and one feels sure the babies get naughty and misbehave when you are not around. Let you know if anyone sends copies of the pieces you ask about. The first-named piece is from one of our Page one or twice. The recipes are appearing under heading of "Cook-Book." Your money contribution will be taken care of, I assure you.

An Address. "Mujerita." The address is 195 Dufferin avenue.

Was Sent Overseas. Dear Miss Grey: I wonder if you would be so kind as to send me a copy of the directions for making a "rose jar" that appeared in the "Pageite" a few weeks ago? My paper was sent overseas before I had a chance to copy it.

Have any of the Pageites heard from "Business Girl's" lonely soldier? I wrote to her several months ago, but failed to receive any reply. Perhaps someone else has been more fortunate in locating him.

May I have "Scottie Frae Dundee's" address? I could send him some papers if no one has been before me.

An enclosing envelope. With kindest regards to all, I am, dear Miss Grey, your sincere friend, "Little Mother."

And your gentle presence in our circle is very welcome. "Little Mother," and I am sure to miss you very much. The directions for "Business Girl" and others who wrote the "lonely soldier" please say if any reply came to hand.

Now "Little Mother" tell me, do you still consider "Keep Smiling" "Scottie's" address has gone to you. One other reader says he is sending him papers, but maybe a bundle from you won't be amiss anyway.

A Grateful "Lonely." My Dear Miss Grey: I have just received a letter from France from one of our "lonelys," thanking me for giving him a name to the "Advertiser," and asking me to send him some papers. He is the lady who signed herself, "True British." Evidently the dear lad thinks I am a wonderful person. He also states that he will write them individually, and to please excuse him, as they have been in some heavy fighting. He says up to the time I gave him a name he never received a parcel. He is now sending me a parcel of kindnesses shown. The boy's name is Chas. E. Simon, 121013.

He is now sending me a parcel of kindnesses shown. The boy's name is Chas. E. Simon, 121013.

Dear Miss Grey: I am sure you will be glad to hear from me. I have just received a letter from France from one of our "lonelys," thanking me for giving him a name to the "Advertiser," and asking me to send him some papers. He is the lady who signed herself, "True British." Evidently the dear lad thinks I am a wonderful person. He also states that he will write them individually, and to please excuse him, as they have been in some heavy fighting. He says up to the time I gave him a name he never received a parcel. He is now sending me a parcel of kindnesses shown. The boy's name is Chas. E. Simon, 121013.
