

REVENGE MAKING ERIN DARK AND BLOODY GROUND

Killings, Shootings, Raids and Guerrilla Warfare.

LONDON, Nov. 18. — Guerrilla warfare was reported today from various parts of Ireland. Despite police reprisals, the Sinn Féin were continuing to attack and ambush forces of soldiers and "Black and Tans" according to advice received here.

A Cork dispatch said that 200 Sinn Féin had been surrounded by a large force of troops near Macroom, where they surrendered. The dispatch failed to make clear whether fighting preceded the rebel surrender.

Pierce fighting was said to have taken place when a detachment of troops was ambushed near Edgeworthstown. The casualties were not given.

Series of Dublin Raids.

Two soldiers were reported to have been killed and two civilians wounded in a series of raids on the homes and gathering places of Sinn Féin in Dublin. Many of the raids were featured by gun fights between the Irish and the soldiers.

A message from Dublin stated that a British marine had been killed and two more wounded in an attack by Sinn Féin on the coast guard station at Union Hill.

A crematorium was burned and several houses destroyed by a police reprisal raid at Ballymore, in revenge for the murder of a member of the Royal Irish Constabulary.

Many Towns Isolated.

Many Irish towns were being isolated by withdrawal of railway service. Cancellations of trains on the North Kerry line, a Cork dispatch said, isolated Rathkeel, Newcastle, West Abbeyside, Listowel and Ballybunion. Only one train was left on the run between Cork and Macroom.

A Sinn Féin court, which was meeting in a deserted police barracks at Ennis, was raided, but no arrests made. Deserted police barracks at Kilmihil were burned.

There were no further details today of the Evening Star's report yesterday that seventeen "Black and Tans" had been massacred by machine gun fire in a Sinn Féin ambush near Ballinalee. No official announcement had been made by the Irish office and efforts to get more information about the reported ambush were unsuccessful.

Premier Is Confident.

Premier Lloyd George is certain the Royal Irish Constabulary will establish order in Ireland, he told fifty picked men from that organization today.

Mr. Lloyd George, who is in London, and Andrew Bonar Law, received the detachment in the quadrangle of the foreign office. The men came here to serve as guards of honor at the funeral of Constables Albert Cusack and Sidney Larkin, killed on duty in Ireland.

Cusack was killed by Sinn Féin in an ambush at Kilmihil, October 31, and Larkin at Aubome November 2. Lloyd George praised the men and their organization, thanked them for their efforts, and declared he was certain they would succeed.

ANTI-HOME RULE CLIQUE SAD TO RUN WAR OFFICE

Independent Inquiry Into Irish
Reprisals Will Be Forced in Commons.

BIASED REPORTS ALLEGED

Cameron and Knox Accused of Aiding Ulster — Trotzky Quoted About Former.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—England is stirred by the demand for an independent investigation of the reprisals in Ireland, and the charge that the Government's statements in the House of Commons regarding these reprisals are based on reports which are made by interested parties.

In well-informed circles here it is asserted that there can be no doubt that the direction of the British army in Ireland is in the hands of persons who are anything but equipped to give the matter unprejudiced consideration. In very high Irish circles it was declared that the British war office has given every encouragement to the arming and organizing of the Ulster Volunteers.

Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, chief of staff at the war office, while not explicitly connected with the Carsons and the Orange Ulstermen, is bitterly opposed to anything like home rule for Ireland. The organized Orangemen are now authoritatively reported to number 40,000 men and declare acquiescence in the assignment of certain British officers to this force. The head of these officers is Col. Wickham, who served with Gen. Sir Alfred Knox on the Kolchak mission in Siberia.

An interesting comment by Leon Trotzky, Bolshevik minister, on Cameron's activities reached London recently. While Major Cameron was the head of the Knox secret service department in Siberia he dealt on the Russian side, it appears, with one of the bright "stars" of the Czar's secret service operations and who was then the head of the Kolchak secret service department. Zuhoff was this man's name.

One of Zuhoff's reports was captured by the Bolsheviks and was quoted by Trotzky to the following effect regarding Major Cameron:

Zuhoff reported that Major Cameron had suggested to the Kolchak adherents that they should start a strong propaganda against the Jews, denouncing them to the Russian peasants. This suggestion was contained in Article VIII. of a report by Major Cameron, which Trotzky quoted, and on Major Cameron's second report, Trotzky said, Zuhoff expressed gratification and surprise over such a suggestion, remarking that he was "under the impression that Jewish influence in the allied countries was too great to admit of such a view being forwarded."

Churchill has introduced into the British Isles the poison committed to the British secret service officers serving in Russia from the putrid carcass of the Czar's notorious secret service police.

Orange Lodges To Use Force.

It is authoritatively declared that Gen. Sir Alfred Knox makes frequent trips to Ulster and keeps in close touch with Major Cameron and his comrades there. Also it is charged that they are organizing Orange lodges to hold Ireland by force, as a last resort, should it come to this, meanwhile disarming the rest of the population and arming the Ulstermen in order to make this easy. It is not asserted that the entire British military organization in Ireland was thus composed, but the facts stated are indicative of the atmosphere through which filter the reports on which the Government's statement in the House of Commons was based, when denial of the more horrible features of the reprisals was made and an independent inquiry into these reprisals refused.

It is this strange Ulster atmosphere which makes Belfast the last remaining place on the globe where a man's life may depend on how he answers a sudden demand for a confession of religious and political faith.

There are indications that there is a clique in the war office which for more than a year has been demanding stern measures in dealing with Ireland. Premier Lloyd George was reported to have resisted these demands up to recently. Also it was reported that the Government based its policy now being pursued on the premier's promise to this war office clique that he would give them a free hand in Ireland for a year in order that they might show results.

The refusal of the Government to interfere and grant an independent investigation was said to be based on this Lloyd George promise and by the threat by Andrew Bonar Law and Sir Edward Carson that they would break up the coalition by withdrawing the Unionist majority unless the premier's promise was carried out.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 18. — A large business house having headquarters in this city, has undertaken to conduct its affairs entirely without the use of money. Instead of currency, it intends to use checks, trade acceptances and travel checks to make payments of every kind, including its payroll. As the concern deals with more than 800,000 individual customers, the result of the experiment will be watched with interest.

The company's reason for adopting this method is given as an effort to demonstrate a means of ending the epidemic of payroll robberies and to show that modern business may be conducted most efficiently without the use of "small change," thus leaving the nation's money where it belongs—in the banks, to serve as a basis of credit.

The announcement says even car fares, hotel bills and railroad fares for the company's force of several hundred salesmen, have been deposited to his credit in a local bank. This plan is expected by the house to prove popular with the "thrifty class of employees" and to increase the volume of bank deposits.

Executive employees who have no banking account have been advised to start one at once.

WIVES ON JURY, MEN COME ASKING DINNER

Hungry Husbands Turn Up in Court.

LONDON, Nov. 18. — Women jurors acted at Swansea Quarter Sessions for the first time recently and there was an amusing sequel. After the jury had been empaneled two workmen arrived at the court with an urgent request that their wives might be released to come home and cook their dinners.

To the great discontent of the applicants, their plea did not succeed. Six men and six women made up the jury at Rochester Quarter Sessions, and they had to spend the entire day over one trial. Three Japanese sailors were accused of unlawful wounding, and the hearing proved a tedious one. So one of the jurymen produced material and sat in the box diligently knitting while listening to the arguments.

When women jurors for the first time sat at Walsall Quarter Sessions counsel said that the first case was an unpleasant and indecent one, which women might not like to try in company with men. The recorder said he could not engraft any new principle on the law as now framed. The case was therefore tried by a mixed jury.

Every Woman

Be she working in factory, shop, office or at home, is often a sufferer from pains here or there, from worry, despondency, and frequently suffers from backache. Very often the trouble is in the organs essentially feminine. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders and the faltering step. To retain the appearance of youth, a woman must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is the woman's temperance tonic and nerve which has had the approval of thousands of women for nearly fifty years. It comes in liquid or tablet form, or send ten one-cent stamps to the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of the tablets. The "Favorite Prescription" is made without alcohol, and will dispel the pains and the weaknesses common to most women in different periods of life. It is prepared in Dr. Pierce's branch Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., and sold by almost every druggist in Canada.

PETERBORO, ONT.—"I am glad indeed to recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the great benefit I have received from taking it. I had suffered for a long time. I would have backache and it just seemed that I had no strength in my back. I also had pains in my side. I became weak and nervous, could not sleep or eat, and was most miserable when I began taking 'Favorite Prescription.' It soon took away all my pains and aches and cured me of this trouble, and my health was better afterward than it had been for a long time. I feel that I can safely recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to other women who all likewise."—MRS. CHAS. BROOKS, 223 Perry Street.

For Ladies

Said Mrs. C. to Mrs. T.—
One bleak and cold and wintry day,
"You know, my dear, this time of year
Is hard on folks.
If only we could feel assured
Of health and comfort, 't would be fine,
But it seems we can't, in such a climate."

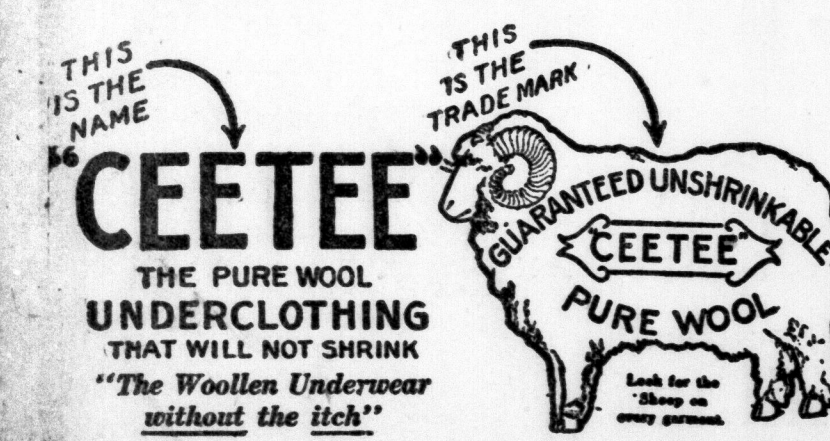

"Well, do you know", smiled Mrs. T.—
"I used to think this time of year,
Meant colds and sickness always near,
But we heard of an easy way,
To be healthy and comfy every day.
You know Mrs. Wise, across the street,
(Just the picture of health and always neat)
Well, she was told by a doctor friend
She'd never regret the money she'd spend
On good wool 'Undies,' the 'CEETEE' kind,
Made by Turnbull's of Galt, I think she said.
An advertisement somewhere then she read—
Telling folks how that particular kind
Was fashioned by experts—and that you'd find
The 'Undies' they made were the better kind—
Fashioned of wool that was not a bit 'tickly'
(Others, you know, tickle and seem sort of prickly)
That all 'CEETEE' garments are so downy and soft,
We'd just love to wear them—in fact, very oft.
Mothers buy them for babies, all fears to allay
Should they go for an airing on a stormy, chill day—
Why! the rain wouldn't matter, neither wind, snow or frost—
'CEETEE' garments, in truth, are worth twice their first cost.
They're the finest of high-grade underwear,
And the thriftiest, best-dressed women who care,
Know that it pays to buy none but the best;
Don't you think we'd do well to give them a test?"

"CEETEE" for ladies is made with low cut neck and no sleeves—also with elbow sleeves and in higher neck and long sleeves.

"CEETEE" is knitted on very fine needles—this makes it very warm, soft and light.

Any doctor will advise you to wear wool next the skin: it is a non-conductor, thus retains the warmth of the body, keeps out the cold and safeguards your health.

Why not try it this winter?
