THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, Jan. 16. (5 p.m.)—The depression which was off the New England coast on Saturday morning has since moved out to the Atlantic after causing strong winds and a heavy snowfall over the greater part of Nova Scotia. The weather is now fair throughout the Dominion, with a tendency in most places towards lower temperatures.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson, 34 below—16 below; Victoria, 36—40; Vancouver, 28—37; Kootenay, 20—22; Calgary, 2 below—34; Edmonton, 10 below—20; Prince Albert, 14 below—zero; Moose Jaw, 12 below—15; Qu'Appelle, 14 below—4; Winnipeg, zero—61; Port Arthur, 20—30; Parry Sound, 22—28; Toronto, 36—40; London, 12—24; Ottawa, 8 below—22; Montreal, 8—25; Quebec, 2 below—14; Halifax, 14.

Probabilities—Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Southerly winds, cloudy and mild; a few light local showers of sleet or rain.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence—Cloudy, with higher temperatures.

Maritime—Fair, stationary or a little higher temperature.

Superior—Fair, not much change in temperature.

All West—Fair, with stationary or higher temperature.

UNIONISTS' NET GAIN IS 15

eral majorities were decreased nearly 9000.

The Navy and Tariff Reform.

The most sweeping change in London was in Fulham Borough, where the middle class population went enthusiastically for tariff reform, giving W. Hayes Fisher, the Unionist candidate, a majority of 2000. In this borough in the last election the seat went to the Liberal by 600.

Devonport, where the big navy issue was predominant, wiped out the Liberal majority of 1900, and returned two Unionists by 500, Sir J. Jackson and Sir C. Kinlock Cooke.

Sir H. Mortimer Durand, the former ambassador to the United States, and Waldorf Astor, who contested the two Plymouth seats as Unionists, were defeated, but cut down that town's Liberal majority from 2367 to 1006 to 946.

Davidson Dalsell, a promoter at one time conspicuous in Wall-street, running on the Unionist ticket, turned out for the Brinton division of Lambeth.

W. Joynton-Hicks, the Unionist, who defeated Winston Spencer Churchill, in the Manchester by-election of 1908 by 429 votes, loses his seat to Sir G. Kent, Liberal, by 735.

The Right Hon. G. Wyndham, who will be Governor-General of Canada if the Unionists take on the government, carried his seat by a slightly increased majority.

Parker Had Close Call.

The Liberals took away a thousand votes from Sir Gilbert Parker in the Gravesend district, but he retains his seat as a Unionist.

The famous barrister, Rufus Isaacs, keeps Reading for the Liberals by a small majority, but Russell Rea, a prominent shipowner, lost Gloucester to the Unionist H. Terrell.

J. T. Lincoln, Liberal, ousted H. Pike Pease, one of the most prominent Unionists, from Darlington, by 29 votes.

While Premier Asquith's brother-in-law, Sir F. Tennant, lost his seat for Salisbury to the Unionist, G. Lockyer-Lampson, by 215 votes.

Grimsby furnished a great surprise, for it shifted 200 votes, and its seat from the Unionist to the Liberal column, T. E. Wing, defeating Sir G. Doughty, one of the foremost Unionist orators.

The streets in the centre of London were almost impassable after the dinner hour from throngs swarming in from the suburbs to get the election returns. The newspaper offices on Fleet-street were the popular magnets.

Many screens were erected on street corners, which the results were bulletined. Reports were read at the theatres and music halls to big audiences.

Cabinet Members Speak.

Several of the members of the cabinet spoke before their constituents at night. Premier Asquith, Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey and Chancellor Lloyd George, all spoke.

Asquith, who spoke last, spoke mainly to upholding the government's management of the navy. Winston Churchill, president of the board of trade at Dundee, denounced "the party of privilege and class."

NOTES OF THE FRAY

I. N. Ford, the London correspondent of The New York Tribune, called on Friday night his view of Saturday's election. He said:

The nominations for members of parliament began to-day, and by midnight of Saturday eighty seats will be filled.

If the Unionists gain twenty seats it will indicate a tie between the coalition of Liberals and Radicals and themselves for the whole house.

A Unionist gain of twenty seats will imply an ultimate majority of 25 Unionist seats, and a gain of twenty-five seats will point to a final majority of 35.

The Unionists gained only thirteen seats, seven less than Mr. Ford said would be necessary to create a tie.

Grimsby, where Geo. Tait Blackstock, K.C., of Toronto, spoke for Sir George Doughty (Un.), turned over 200 votes and elected a Liberal. Torontoans will infer that the eminent K.C. was late in getting on the ground.

Three well-known Canadians contesting have their fight to-day, Hamar Greenwood, in York, and Joe Martin in St. Pancras, and Benar Law (Camberwell).

Rt. Hon. Sir Geo. Wyndham, secretary of war for the Unionist government, was the first member of the cabinet administration to be elected by a vote of the people.

Sir Christopher Furness (Lib.), elected for Hartlepool, is the head of one of the greatest shipbuilding yards, and recently introduced a co-partnership with employees scheme.

Sir Gilbert Parker, who had a close call in Gravesend, is the Canadian novelist, and the only Canadian so far elected.

Waldorf Astor (Un.) was the first man in the Plymouth contest, 900 votes behind the second Liberal elected. He is a son of Wm. Waldorf Astor, formerly of New York, now a naturalized Englishman. His children are all naturalized Britishers.

Rufus Isaacs (Lib.), elected in Reading, is the leading barrister in the kingdom.

Sir Henry Norman, the Liberal journalist, recently appointed assistant postmaster-general, was defeated at Wolverhampton South by a small majority. In order to retain his place in the cabinet he will be nominated from another borough.

Joynson Eicks, who defeated Winston Churchill in the by-election in Manchester, was himself defeated Saturday.

T. G. Bowles (Lib.), elected in King's Lynn, is the well-known "rag" of the house, and one of the popular and frequent figures in Punch's pictures of parliament.

Ian Malcolm (Un.), defeated in Salford North, has had considerable experience in affairs of state, and is a man of great promise. He is a native of Quebec, was born in Toronto and Ottawa. He is married to a daughter of Mrs. Lily Langtry.

Capt. Hon. Guy Victor Baring (Un.), Winchester, distinguished himself in the South African war. He is Viscount Barmore (Con.), Birmingham.

Among the interesting members is Rev. C. Sylvester Horne, Congregational minister, who won on the Liberal ticket at Ipswich.
