HUNDRED HORSES IN DANGER OF BURNING

Fire in P. Maher's Livery Stable
Burns for Hours
In Hay,

The lives of a hundred or more horses were endangered by a fire early yesterday morning, which partly destroyed the brick stable in the rear of Patrick Maher's livery, 19 East Bloor-st. The fire had probably been smouldering for several hours before being discovered by a night watchman about 8 o'clock, and when the firemen arrived it was going full blast. Several contingents of fire reels were necessarily called out, owing to the difficulty experienced in dousing the flames in the hay. The cause of the fire is unknown and the loss is estimated at $2500 and that of the building at $1000.

DANTE'S INFERNO AT THE COLONIAL THEATRE.

What has proved to be one of the most instructive and remarkable series of cinematographic films ever produced is that of depicting the inferno from the "Divine Comedy," by the greatest of Italian poets--Dante Alighieri. The poem ranks among the immortal classics of all time, and round it has grown a veritable library of illustrations and commentary. The attempt to depict the wonderful scenes described by the poet was bold in the extreme, but a real triumph has been achieved. Occupying more than two hours to unfold, the pictures tell in a most artistic and realistic manner the story of Dante's pilgrimage, under the guidance of Virgil, thru the realm of eternal woe. Dante conceived the abode of the lost as an abysmal spiral of nine constantly diminishing circles terminating at the centre of the earth. In these circles the wicked are confined, beginning with those guilty of the lesser sins and ending with the traitors to kindred, country, friends and benefactors. The imagination of the poet conjures up a succession of visions that have enthralled the centuries and have influenced the literature of every civilized nation. Everywhere there are Dante sculptures devoted to the study of his works, but never before has so striking an effort been made to embody his imaginative pictures in actual dramatic form.

These extraordinary reels which elicited warm recognition from the King of Italy, will be shown in the Colonial Theatre on Queen-street, opposite the city hall, during the week beginning March 4. There will be a continuous performance, and it is certain that a renowned poetic genius never before has the supreme effort of a lifetime embodied in realistic form. More than a hundred scenes will be shown, and together they will present the most remarkable performance ever offered to the public of Toronto. Special arrangements have been made to enable the audience to follow

Garden Theatre
COLLEGE STREET
(Just West of Spadina Avenue)

Devoted Exclusively to Superior Presentation of Personally Selected
MOTION PICTURES

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Garden Theatre is the acknowledged high-class motion picture theatre of Toronto. Its patronage comes from the most respectable element in and around Toronto and by many visitors to the city. For some time past it has been next to impossible to accommodate the throngs who have applied for admittance and many times great was the crowd that it was necessary for the sergeant of police to send for a reinforcement in order to handle the multitude. A crowd is a crowd no matter where it congregates, and due to the crush of those trying to gain admittance to the Garden Theatre at various times, all sorts of protests, arguments and ideas have been voiced to the manager, both by word of mouth and by letter, that something be done by him to remedy the trouble. Particularly have many patrons complained of the shows of late were not as long as heretofore. To this argument let it be stated that we never advertised more than four subjects, but do please continue to showing at times as high as seven subjects, the performance consuming about one hour and forty-five minutes, and from what has been said and written it appears that an exhibition of about the mentioned length just makes the ideal motion picture show.

We now propose to present the most finished motion picture exhibition on the continent in such a way that patrons can enjoy same with comfort. Changes will be made which will cost the management many dollars more per week than is now expended, which naturally necessitates an increased fee of admittance.

- 1--More expensive selection of film subjects.
- 2--Orchestra increased by two artists.
- 3--Tickets sold limited to seating capacity only.

NOTICE TO FAT WOMEN

Presumably you know, ladies, that the proper caper nowadays is lines. Curves are passé. You have got to take off your fat. This must be done in one of three ways. By dieting, exercise, or by means of Marmola Prescription Tablets. The two former will keep you busy for months and punish you greatly severely. The latter will cost you 75 cents at the drugstore. The tablets will not make any alteration in your diet, necessary and yet it is all probability, before you have used up one case, you will be losing from 12 to 16 ounces of fat a day. Which method do you like the best?

If you fancy a pleasant method of getting off the fat, see your druggist instantly, or else write the Marmola Co., 321 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., to send you a case by mail. These cases contain as generous a quantity of tablets that the treatment is very economical. It is also, quite exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription.

I took that little book home and read it. It was about the benefits of the internal bath. I might have been skeptical and have thought it was just another scheme to make money at the expense of the unwary; but I had constantly in mind the character of the Chief--if it had made a new man of him there must be something in it. The result was that I sent for one of the J. B. L. Cascade that it told about. The book was perfectly straightforward and I understood perfectly that the virtue lay in the cleanliness produced by pure, warm water, the Cascade being the appliance by which the cleansing process could be made convenient and effective.

That was some time ago--I honestly believe that my capacity for work and for play too, had just about doubled. One evidence of it is that the Chief has raised by salary. The increase for one week more than pays for the J.B.L. Cascade--consider that a pretty good investment. It is not only the increase in my earning power and capacity for work that counts. The great big advantage to my mind is the pleasure I get out of life. I not only work better, but I eat better, sleep better, play better, and get so much more fun out of everything that my friends sometimes tell me I act like an overgrown boy. I guess they are right--I know I feel like one.

By the way, Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, 312 College-street, Toronto, will send you one of those books if you drop him a line.

I do not know of a better suggestion to make to anyone than to just repeat the Chief's advice to me, viz: Get the book and read it carefully. That will not cost you anything, because it is sent free. Then if you do not act, it will not be because of ignorance and the fault will be yours--not mine.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
SUED BY OTTAWA PRIEST

Father Whelan Wants to Prevent
Parent Society Carrying on Business in Ontario.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 2.--Action which may affect the working of the Knights of Columbus has been taken against them by Father Whelan of St. Patrick's Church, Ottawa. The father has issued a writ asking for an injunction against the parent society from carrying on business with in Ontario, and from receiving from Ontario councils of the Knights of Jesus, dues, assessments and other charges. The injunction applied for is also to restrain the society from adopting or putting into action any rules or regulations passed by them with regard to the fourth degree, providing for the selection of certain members only of the Knights for admissions to the fourth degree, to the exclusion or hindrance of the plaintiff or other qualified members of the society in Ontario. There are only a few fourth degree members of the order in Ontario, Bishop Fallon of London being said to be one of them.

The legal firm which is acting for Rev. Father Whelan has assumed an attitude of secrecy in connection with the case, and declines to discuss it. Neither was any statement obtainable from local officers of the Knights.

REJUVENATION OF THE CHIEF

A Personal Experience.

Monday is a bad day at the office and I always dread it. In addition to the accumulation of mail matter and the assignment of work for the week, there are always a few things to be gathered up, mostly in connection with jobs that should have been, but were not, completed the week before. To aggravate the trouble the Chief is invariably in bad humour on Monday. He is a hearty eater at all times, but on Sunday he takes no exercise--the result is that on Monday there is an accumulation of bile and he vents his spleen on his subordinates.

On a particular Monday some weeks ago, things seemed to be in a worse muddle than usual and I looked forward with anything but pleasure to the Chief's appearance on the scene. I did not feel any too well myself. Perhaps it will be just as well to confess that I had been guilty of the Chief's besetting sin. We had spent the week-end with some friends in a suburb. I had eaten a little more than was good for me and smoked a great deal more than was good for me. We did not get home until after midnight and I had not my usual eight hours' sleep.

The Chief arrived at nine o'clock--a full hour earlier than usual; evidently he had not slept well--I groaned and prepared for the worst.

You can imagine my relief when he came into the office whistling a couple of bars of ragtime. He tried it over several times as he removed his overcoat and prepared for his work, but could get no further than the two bars--the Chief certainly had a great ear for music.

When he got to his desk he called me and said: "Well, Charlie, let us get down to hard tackle at once." (For several sakes--Charlie, he had never called me by my Christian name before.) I wondered dully what could be in the wind. Well, he took up every thing as it came and disposed of them in a cheerful business-like way. We got through more real work by five o'clock that day than we usually did by ten on Tuesday, and it was all due to the Chief's feeling so fine and fit, for personally, I felt worse than usual. His cheerfulness and energy seemed to be contagious. Before noon everyone in the place was doing fifty per cent. more work than usual.

I looked for a re-action, but it did not come. Day after day the Chief kept up his good humor and his energy. Work--he was hungry for it. He went at it as if he enjoyed even the most arduous and difficult, and have found out since that he really does enjoy them.

He kept us going at full steam that week--on Saturday, as we were closing up, he was so friendly and decent that I ventured to remark that his health seemed better than it had been and asked him if he had been going in for physical training. He stopped what he was doing and said: "Say, Charlie, I am going to tell you something--I have hesitated--No, I will do better than that, I will give you something to read over Sunday." He dug down among some papers on his desk and handed me a little paper-covered book. On the title page I read--"Why Men of To-Day are Only Fifty Per Cent. Efficient."

I took that little book home and read it. It was about the benefits of the internal bath. I might have been skeptical and have thought it was just another scheme to make money at the expense of the unwary; but I had constantly in mind the character of the Chief--if it had made a new man of him there must be something in it. The result was that I sent for one of the J. B. L. Cascade that it told about. HEADACHES OVER THE EYES
MEAN FRONTAL CATARRH

Apt To Get Into Ears, Causing
Deafness, or To Reach the Lungs and End in Consumption.

You Can Cure Catarrh in Any Stage
By Breathing the Healing Balsamic
Fumes of Catarrhone, and Here Is Proof.

Mr. Urie Berrault, a young gentleman who has lived for years in Sweetburg, Que., inherited catarrh from his mother. The disease spread through his system till he was a physical wreck. "As a child," said Mr. Berrault, "any time to a ulceration of the nasal passages. I grew pale and emaciated, lost all desire for food, and got into such a dreadful condition that my friends said I was fairly eating me up. Every organ of my body seemed affected, and the doctor said it was the first stage of consumption. He advised Catarrhone and I labored ten minutes at a time every few hours, and was rewarded in a few days by a wonderful improvement."

Catarrhone pleased me and the doctor so well that I said it continually, and took Ferrerone Tablets after each meal, to build up my strength. In about three weeks I was quite recovered, and the doctor says no remedy for Catarrh could work such a miracle. "Everyone in town knows I was just about dead with catarrh, and my cure is an evidence of what Catarrhone can do. It is a pleasure to recommend Catarrhone."

Two months' treatment, large dose, price $1, and guaranteed. Small dose, all reliable dealers, or the Catarrhone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Ont. Beware of dangerous imitations, and imitations for "Catarrhone."
