FLORODORA AT THE NICKEL TODAY

This is the day for a change of the musical programme at the Nickel and the offering of Holmes and Buchanan promises to be received with even greater enthu-siasm than their opening number. When Leslie Stuart, the English musician, wrote "Florodora," it is doubtful if he ever dreamed of its attaining such popularity, and of all the numbers the sextette, "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden," scored the hit. Today Miss Holmes and Mr. Buchanan, with magnificent costumes, will sing this ar-duous piece with their orchestra. Miss Holmes will also sing a solo, "Edouard Courtnais will sing "Someone Thinks of Someone." The picture bill is to include "The British Submarine Boat," "A Trip Through Savoy," two comedies and several dances. Yesterday's weather was wan-ting to keep everybody away from en-tertainments, but the Nickel enjoyed a generous patronage considering the con-ditions.

CAMERAPHONE PRESENTS

SIX EXCELLENT COMEDIES. With six excellent comedies, headed by a German comedy encounter entitled "The Red and Green Light," the cameraphone last night presented the best comedy bill at any show here. The second number is the Spanish Dancing Trio, a first class dancing number. Collins and Dover in the "Frother and the Bear," specially posed and sung for the Cameraphone Company were next. Clara Thropp in her latest comedy, "The Bachelor," was the New York's favorite four, and the Irish Justice, a funny court room scene, were all good vaudeville numbers. The other films will be shown. Miss Von Branders in new song. Special feature matinee Saturday.

STAR'S SHOWS ARE

EXCITING COMMENT

The excellent programmes being put on in the new North theatre in Union Hall, are attracting hundreds of the most exacting people in that section of the city, as well as in Canada. The programmes are good and new, the singing bright and pleasing and the instrumental effects and realism of a high-class. To-night the pictures "The Blind Farmer's Daughter," "A Real Good Watch Dog," "Grandpa and the Kittens," and other films will be shown. Miss Von Branders in new song. Special feature matinee Saturday.

F. M. A. AT HOME

The Father Matthew Association held a very successful at home last evening, in their rooms in St. Malachi's Hall, and in spite of the weather conditions there was a good attendance. Members of other Catholic societies were guests and all were well entertained with an enjoyable programme. There was a piano and violin duet by Messrs. Conway and O'Hara, solos were sung by James Costigan, Thomas O'Leary, P. McKinney, E. J. Henneberry and David Higgins, step dancing by Leo, McGough, Messrs. Murphy and Hargreaves and H. Hargreaves, solo and guitar selection by Mr. Dick and a reading by R. Jennings. Interesting addresses were given by Rev. D. S. O'Keefe, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, J. C. Ferguson, A. Bardsley, J. O'Brien and H. Galligan.

MONCTON NEWS

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 10. (Special)—The marriage of John A. Keenan, of the I. C. R. electrical department, and Miss Cath-erine W. Hanagan, daughter of Conductor D. Hanagan, of the I. C. R., took place this morning in St. Bernard's church, in the presence of friends of the contracting couple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Conway, assistant pastor of St. Bernard's. Mr. and Mrs. Keenan went to Halifax on a wedding trip. Col. Dodge, of St. John, tonight made his annual inspection of Moncton Division Uniform Rank K. of P., after which he was entertained at supper.

THE VERY REASON.

Katharine—I read the other day that ten pounds of American flour will make much bread as 11 pounds of English flour. Kidder—No wonder so, many Englishmen come over here looking for American dough.

The Norwegian steamer "Saga," Captain Soland, arrived at Bridgeport (Conn.) yesterday from St. John.
