William Perks

FREDERICTON, Feb. 15—(Special)—Rev. Father Carney is in receipt of a telegram from Houlton announcing the death at that place last night of William Perks a well known druggist. He was a native of Fredericton but had been a resident of Houlton for thirty-five years. His death was due to a complication of diseases. He was about seventy years of age and a bachelor. One brother Charles E. Perks lives at Houlton and Miss T. Coughlan of St. John is a sister. The body will be brought here for burial.

SENT FROM MONCTON

A letter sent to the Times from Hopewell Hill states that a large bundle of copies of the sheet known as Free Speech printed in Moncton has been received by Alex Rogers, registrar of deeds, for distribution. The letter remarks that if Mr. Rogers circulates this sheet among the people he will be doing himself a grave injustice, as its contents are scurrilous in the extreme, and he is a government official.

Miss Annie Urquhart is visiting her sister, Mrs. Snyder, at Hatfield's Point.

FYOUND—A WATCH FOUND ON THE Coughlan of St. John is a sister. The body will be brought here for burial.

SUSSEX, Feb. 15 (Special)—James C. Coates, a farmer of Newton, died at his home early this morning of pneumonia, aged 68 years. The deceased was well known and highly respected by his many friends. A widow and an adopted daughter, Mrs. H. R. Keith, survive, also two brothers, Herbert and John, of Boston, and a sister, Mrs. Coy, of Collina. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Rogers will officiate. The Foresters, of which deceased was a member, will have charge of the funeral.

At a meeting of the St. John Presbytery held at Fairville last evening the resignation of Rev. Willard MacDonald from the pastorate of St. Paul's church, Fredericton, was brought up by the reading of a letter from Mr. MacDonald by Rev. A. H. Foster, clerk of the presbytery.

It will be noted that Madame Sembrich will sing no less than eight times. In a recent New York concert recital, where the programme was one of seventeen numbers, Sembrich sang no less than thirty-seven times, including encores. Thus it will be Wednesday evening, the great singer will be heard just as many times as the enthusiasm of the audience demands. Even after a group of five songs, the diva is generous enough to give an encore, besides probably repeating several of the group. 85, 87, 89, 91, 93 Princess 3t.
