THE LADY ELISEN.

Word was received yesterday by Frank S. Blair, of Campbellton, secretary of the Interprovincial Navigation Company, that the steamer Lady Elisen was launched at Port Glasgow, Scotland. The steamer will be 100 feet long, 22 feet beam, and a speed of 12 knots, and will accommodate 100 second and 200 second class passengers, while her freight capacity is 1,000 tons. She will be launched April 16, and will go on the Glasgow route about the middle of that month. The steamer is named after Earl Minto's daughter.

Mrs. N. was giving instructions to her new servant: "You must be very particular, always ask how you can be of service, and never do anything he or she would like any more."

Next day Mary, respectfully bowing her head, asked: "Would the gentleman like more soap?"

"No, thank you," said the lady.

"There isn't any left."

"He carried himself well."

"No, he didn't."

"He couldn't be always."

"Do not be to carry him last night."

THE GRABBED THE GHOST.

Chicago Detective Has a Strenuous Wrestling Match With a Muscular Spook.

Chicago, March 13.—After a struggle with a white robed "spirit" in a room in Fever street, a city detective arrested the ghost, despite fierce resistance. When the lights were turned on, the visitor from the other world was found to be a slim, young man, and extremely muscular young lady. She will have a hearing today on charges of molesting mothers and children.

The raid was the first move in a general crusade again "fake materializations," which the police are pursuing with photography, "take notes" and under-taken by the police.

GRAIN MERCHANT DEAD.

Philadelphia, Mar. 13.—Charles E. Dunwoody, former president of the Commercial Exchange and one of the best known merchants in this city, died suddenly on a Pennsylvania railroad train to-day while on his way from his home in a suburb, to his office here. He was about 55 years old. Mr. Dunwoody was head of the firm of Dunwoody and Co., grain merchants.

THE ANNUAL SEAL HUNT.

St. John's, N. F., March 13.—A sealing fleet of 20,000 men will sail at daylight in the annual hunt for pair seals among the ice floes along the coast. Two-thirds of the fleet will be in Labrador waters, and two will enter the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The weather is so good that the hunt is expected to start at the cruise will prove an arduous one.

LUCANIA DELAYED.

Queenstown, Mar. 13.—The repairs to the Cunard line steamer Lucania which returned to this port with her starboard lower pipe broken, will take longer than anticipated. It is not expected that she will be able to continue her voyage until Tuesday.

—W. J. L., in New York Sun.

Nine members were present, from Leinster St. church. It was learned that there are good prospects of a union, but no details were given out. There are about 600 members in the two congregations, and the majority are in favor of the union.

Can I Eat Anything Now.

How many Dyspeptics can say that?

Or perhaps you are dyspeptic and don't know it.

Have you any of these symptoms?

Variable appetite, a faint gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach, unsatisfied hunger, a burning of food, rising and souring of food, a painful load at the pit of the stomach, constipation, or are you gloomy and miserable? Then you are a dyspeptic. The cure is careful diet; avoid stimulants and narcotics; keep regular habits, and regulate the stomach and bowels with

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS,
Nature's specific for Dyspepsia.

Miss Laura Chinoche, Belle Anse Cove, says of its wonderful curative powers:— "I was very ill—very to the run-down state of my system. I suffered with indigestion, and I suffered and had blood. I tried everything I could get, but to no purpose; then finally started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. From the first day I felt the good effect of the medicine, and I am now feeling strong without any ill after-effects. It gave me great pleasure to recommend Burdock Blood Bitters, for I feel I saved my life."
