In Toronto, the Ontarios defeated Quebec after five minutes overtime by a score of 3 to 2.

In Ottawa, the home team defeated the champion Torontos 2 to 1.

In Montreal, the Wanderers won from the Canadiens, 5 goals to 4.

Amateur Hockey Booming.

Amateur Hockey is heing boomed from the Atlantic to the Pacific. For some time, until last year, when the amateurs began to become prominent again, there were but few players developed in Canada for the professional ranks. The reason is that amateurs trying for places on the big teams were not given a fair trial. The pros. in many cases were afraid they would lose their jobs, and when a player was brought on the ice for a trial some got after him.

Everybod yinterested in the American League is pleased over the sale of the New York Americans and hopes that the new owners will put the club up in the first division where it has not been since George Stallings managed it. Robert E. Hedges, president of the St. Louis American League Club, arrived in Huntington, Va., on Friday and signed George Baumgardner, pitcher, for his team. Baumgardner is said to have had offers from several Federal League clubs.

This is the baseball lawyer's inning. Bill Klem is the only umpire now in the big leagues who has officiated in six world series. Here they are: '08, '09, '11, '12, '18 and '14. Connolly has been in five and O'Laughlin in three. Until 1912 it was $500 a series per umpire; since then $1,000.

President Joe Lannin of the Red Sox said the other day that he would not be surprised if the American League moguls continued the team limit at twenty-five instead of cutting down to meet the National League's twenty-one-players-to-a-team rule.

Barney Dreyfus says that the Pirates won three pennants when their numbers were less than the present twenty-one player rule allows, and adds that what has been done may be done again.

Concensus of expert guesses has it that Sherwood Magee will get $7,000 a year with the world champions, and Hans Löbert almost as much with the Giants.

Prize Fighter Killed. In Seattle, Wash, on Saturday night
L. Anderson, known as "Jack Newton" was knocked out by Ike Cohen and suffered concussion of the brain. He died Sunday without having regained consciousness. Cohen and one of his seconds are under arrest.

Johnson Will Fight McVey. Jack Johnson having cabled Billy Gibson that he would box Sam McVey in Cuba after he disposed of Willard, promoter Gibson has gone to Cuba to arrange for the battle in April.

FOOTBALL.

Berlin, via London, Jan. 9—The German army authorities have issued a general order prohibiting in future troops in the field from fraternizing with forces of the enemy as they did at several points in the western theatre of the war at Christmas.

To such an extent was this frater nizing carried out that at one place where the Germans and British player football Christmas Day they agreed to suspend hostilities for two days more.

They Look Good.

"The horses purchased at the Chicago sale by Messrs Lint and Jewett of Fredericton, and shipped home by the way of Calais are still in 'Jim' Hill's stable," says the St. Croix Courier. "On account of the foot and mouth disease which broke out in the Chicago stock yards, no animal can cross the line. They have four fine looking horses, including: The two year old Tryfast, 2.24½, by Trampfast, 2.12½, dam Kaola, by Peter the Great, 2.07½, is a little peach and should be as good as any man's.

"Roy Volo (3), by Nervolo, 2.04½, dam Royalet, 2.19½, by Wayne Wilkes, 2.16. This fellow is a chestnut and looks gamey and good all over.

"Marion Dillon, 2.11½, is a four year old by Sidney Dillon, dam Oddity Direct, by Lord Direct, a fine looking brown mare and good size.

"Another big stallion, four years old, by The Deforest, 2.22¼, is a mighty fine looking animal, and the four make a valuable addition to the trotting stock of the province." They Look Good.

BRITAIN'S PRINGE "TOMMY'S" FRIEND

future King Performs Acts Of Kindness in Fighting Zone

Known in Lines as "That Grenadier Chap" - Prince of Wales Gave His Collar Badge To Belgian Child

nised.

His penalty of being a prince of the royal blood of England is to be much in the public eye, and many and varied are the little annecdotes which have percolated through to headquarters. One of the prince's favorite habits is to vanish from mortal ken—"simply evaporate" as one officer said to me—to be discovered possibly an hour later calmly smoking a cigarette and interrogating wounded men in some out of-the-way corner which is invariably nearer, the danger zone than his Royal Highness should be. "That Grenadier Chap."

newcomer. "Why, didn't you know?" he replied, with a grin—"It's only the Prince of Wales."

A look of consternation overspread the features of the worthy sergeant and his companions. "Great Scott!"—and here's me and the boys smoking all his cigarettes, and I only called him 'Sir!" Never mind, sergeant, your prince won't think any the less of you for that, if you but knew it.
