REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BENEFICIARY.

LINDSAY, FEB., 12th, 1885.

To the M. W. G. P., Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge.

SIR AND BRETHREN,—We your Committee on Beneficiary, having carefully read the Grand Secretary's Supplementary Report, recommend the same to be printed with the letters accompanying it. We recommend that seven members constitute the Finance Board instead of five.

We recommend that the Subordinate Lodge Secretaries deduct the Medical fees from the Initiation money, and pay over same to the Medical Examiners, instead of sending to Grand Secretary, thereby saving expense, the Secretary to send two dollars to Grand Secretary. We recommend that motions 1 and 2 on Sessional Papers (re Beneficiary) be not entertained.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

T. R. SKIPPON, Chairman.

J. R. WILLIAMS,
JAS. BANKS, Secretary.
