OBJECTION SEEN FROM DOMINIONS

Premiers Doubtfully Divided On Locarno Pact

By C. F. CRANDALL, Pres. British United Press Exclusive to The Times-Star

LONDON, Oct. 21.—What foreign policy mysteries, if any, Sir Austen Chamberlain revealed to the Overseas Premiers yesterday, when for an hour or so he took off his old diplomatic ivory mask, is still a dark secret. The morning papers only print the official "handout," not half as much as the British United Press was able to send yesterday.

The main point of the Dominion's objection is the implication that in case of aggression the guarantor powers are automatically involved in hostilities even before the League Council has an opportunity to consider the trouble. In other words, what is feared is the creation of a smaller but dynamic super-league.

HERTZOG ABSENT

It is significant that Hertzog was not present at the banquet, and it is believed that while this was originally a French treaty, Britain has consistently resisted it, contending that any concerted action must follow the league process in the exertion of diplomatic or economic pressure followed by the blockade before any formal declaration of war by which the league will have plenty of opportunities to function.
