

The Evening Star

VOL. XVIII, No. 202

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1922.

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

WILLIAMS AND HORNSBY ARE TIE

Ruth Still Fails to Hit Circuit Clout

Pinch Hitter Puts One Over Fence in Ninth Inning—Lewis Sues Newspaper and Carpenter—Week's Wagers at Woodbine $840,000.

(Canadian Press) New York, May 30—One big inning, the seventh, in which the Yankees plastered Harris and Moore for eight hits and seven runs, was enough to down the Philadelphia team by a score of 7 to 4. In the first game of the series...

(Canadian Press) St. Louis, May 30—The Cardinals' home run drive scored two runs in the eighth and checked the Giants' winning streak, Douglas being driven from the box.

(Canadian Press) Chicago, May 30—Douglas McWeeny, young right hander who has been with the Chicago White Sox two years, is one of two pitchers who will play in the San Francisco club along with $100,000 in cash for Willie Kamm, third baseman, according to Harry Greenberg, manager of the Sox.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—Another contest has been arranged between Ted Lewis and Georges Carpentier, says the Daily Mirror. The English pugilist has entered a suit for libel against the publishers of Town Topics and Carpentier has an article in that publication on May 19, under the caption: "I, Ted Lewis, 'Kid Lewis,' the authorship of which was attributed to Georges.

(Canadian Press) Indianapolis, May 30—Joe Welling, Chicago lightweight, outpointed Mel Cogan, of Brooklyn, in a round boxing contest last night, according to sport writers at the ring-side.

(Canadian Press) Toronto, May 30—The next move in the dispute over the new tax on race track wagers is up to the Ontario Jockey Club, according to the position taken by the government. That position is that the case is settled so far as the government is concerned, and that the jockey club is subject to the penalty of one thousand dollars per day for each day in default of payment of the tax on the wagers at the Woodbine meet last week.

(Canadian Press) Toronto, May 30—The tax due to the province from the seven days betting of the Woodbine meeting amounts to $217,000, being five per cent on a total of $4,340,000. Evidently the officials of the Thoroughbred track do not propose to question the collection of the tax since the amount due from yesterday's betting was paid over to the representatives of the provincial treasury last night. The amount was twenty-one thousand dollars. The officials say that the province should send representatives to receive the money at the close of each day's racing, which was readily accepted.

(Canadian Press) New York, May 30—Tex Rickard says arrangements have been completed for a match between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Lew Tunt, Philadelphia southpaw, in which Leonard will defend his title, at Jersey City on May 31.

(Canadian Press) New York, May 30—The professional "golf triumvirate of the U. S., Jim Barnes, Walter Hagen and Jack Hutchison—will carry the battle to England's links again this year in the open championship at Sandwich, June 22 and 23. They will participate in the £10,000 tournament at Glen Eagles, and perhaps in preliminary events. It will be the third attempt by Barnes and Hagen to carry off the British title.

(Canadian Press) The Permanent Force Rifle Association held the first of their spoon shoots this afternoon. The prizes were three spoons, one for first place in each of the three classes.

BOTTOMLEY IS TO APPEAL

Meantime Question of His Retaining Seat in the Commons is in Abeyance.

London, May 30—Horatio Bottomley, former publisher of John Bull, who was sentenced yesterday to seven years penal servitude upon conviction for misappropriation of funds of the Victory Bond Club, will probably retain his seat in the House of Commons at least until after his appeal from conviction is heard. This, it is thought, is at least a month distant.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

IRISH DIFFICULTY ENGAGES CABINET

Meanwhile Heavy Fighting on Border Continues.

London Official Circles are Gloomy Over the Situation—Churchill Likely to Deliver Speech Till Tomorrow—Serious Reports from Northern Places.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

(Canadian Press) London, May 30—A Cabinet meeting was called today for discussion of the Irish difficulty, which continues to cause the gravest concern, with no solution apparently in sight.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "the monkey in the cage at Rockwood Park spends a lot of time inventing itself in a small mirror."

HOPES U. S. WILL PROMOTE POLICY OF CLOSER RELATIONS WITH EMPIRE

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

Washington, May 30—Hope that the policy of closer relations with Great Britain, the initiation of which he attributed to Thomas J. Jefferson, would continue to be influential in the councils of the U. S. government, was expressed last night by A. B. Parker, when, as chancellor of the Sulgrave Institution, he presented to the United States Sir A. Forester's painting of "The Signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

WILL OF SENATOR F. P. THOMPSON

Estate Sworn in Fredericton at $79,900

Mostly 'Phone Company and Bank of Montreal Stock—Divide It Among Children—Gifts Made to Family and Institutions Before His Death.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—The will of Hon. Frederick Pemberton Thompson, who died a few weeks ago in Ottawa while engaged there in his duties as a member of the Canadian Senate, has been admitted to probate here. The estate was sworn in at $79,900. His son, Alexander J. Thompson, district superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Company, is the sole executor. Mrs. F. B. Gregory and Mrs. F. E. Winslow of Vancouver, the late senator's two daughters, not caring to act as executrices, although named as such in the will.

SHOULD ASSIST MARITIME BOARD

Government Aid in Trade Matters Urged.

Conference in Halifax Adopts St. John Resolution of G. E. Barbour—Permanent Manager With Big Salary Needed, Says M. E. Agar.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 30—That the maritime board of trade should receive governmental support from the three provinces and that it should have a permanent manager and secretary and function partly as a trade board and partly as the political factors headed by Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, is now engaged in attempting to persuade Collins and Griffith to modify the agreement or limit its duration.

ST. JOHN FIRM GET CONTRACT

New Hall and Sunday School Building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 30—A special committee of the City Council, headed by Mayor McEwan, has awarded a contract to the St. John firm for the construction of a new hall and Sunday school building for Fredericton.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological services.

Synopsis—Pressure is well above the normal over the greater portion of the continent and highest in the northwest states. The weather has been fine over the dominion with the exception of a few scattered showers in the southern parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Forecast, maritime—Light to moderate winds, fine and warm today and Wednesday, stationary or moderate temperature.

Gulf and North Shore—Moderate winds, mostly northeast and north, fair today and on Wednesday. Stationary or slightly lower temperature.

Temperatures—Lowest Highest during 8 a.m. yesterday night.

Prince Rupert ... 82 80
Victoria ... 82 80
Kamloops ... 82 80
Calgary ... 82 80
Edmonton ... 82 80
St. John, N.B. ... 82 80
Winnipeg ... 82 80
White River ... 82 80
Sault Ste. Marie ... 82 80
Toronto ... 82 80
Kingston ... 82 80
Ottawa ... 82 80
Montreal ... 82 80
Quebec ... 82 80
Halifax ... 82 80
St. John's, Nfld. ... 82 80
Detroit ... 82 80
New York ... 82 80

STEAMSHIP HITS GREAT ICEBERG

Good Work of West Kebar Captain Saves Vessel

Reverses Engines and Heads Ship Straight for Mass of Ice—Stem is Badly Crumpled, but Makes Port at Montreal.

(Canadian Press) Montreal, May 30—Having disputed the story of a way with a gigantic iceberg while off Cape Race and emerged second best the American ship West Kebar is now in port with twenty plates round her stem and starboard quarters to be repaired. The ice-berg was 300 feet high and fully half a mile long, officers say, and only presence of mind of the captain saved the ship from complete disaster.