MUNICIPALITIES UNION TODAY

Delegates Visit Lancaster and Have Opening Session This Afternoon

The delegates to the ninth annual convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities met in the old council chamber in the court house this morning at 9.30 o'clock. After registering, they were taken in automobiles to Lancaster, where they visited the Provincial Hospital for Nervous Diseases, the Partington Pulp mill and the Simms brush factory. The party returned to the city a little after noon.

A meeting of the executive committee of the union was held at 2.30 o'clock, when arrangements were made for the formal opening of the convention at three o'clock.

The delegates registered this morning were:—Moses Mitchell, Joseph Walker, W. J. Osborne, H. A. Smith, Fredericton; F. St. John Bliss, York county; H. R. McEllan, J. King Kelley, Wm. Murdoch, F. L. Potts, St. John; H. Shillington, Simonds, Wm. Golding, Lancaster; Frederick Thompson, Musquash; James E. Bryant, Lancaster; Hanford Palmer, Sackville; Francis P. Hunter, St. Stephen; A. W. Ridgwell, Diester Rock; G. C. Grant, Canterbury; S. B. Hunter, Harvey Station; A. T. LeBlanc, Shediac; J. W. Walker, Marysville; M. D. Patterson, Lincoln, Sunbury county; Charles J. Morrissy, Newcastle; James V. Russell, Rupert W. Wigmore, St. John.

MISS JOSEPHINE FITZPATRICK
B.R.I.E. OF WILLIAM J. SHOWERS

An interesting wedding was solemnized this morning at nine o'clock with nuptial mass in the Cathedral, when Rev. Wm. Duke, the rector, united in marriage Miss Josephine V. Fitzpatrick, youngest daughter of Patrick Fitzpatrick of this city, and William J. Showers of Montreal, a member of the Allan Line staff. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only immediate relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William J. Fitzpatrick, wore a gown of Alice blue with hat to match, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. P. Quinn, as matron of honor. The groom's brother, Joseph A. Showers, was groomsmen. Mrs. Quinn was attired in navy blue. After the ceremony, a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 100 Waterloo street. Mr. and Mrs. Showers will leave by the C. P. R. this evening on a short honeymoon trip to Montreal, and will make their home in St. John for the winter.

Many handsome presents received testify to their popularity, and there are many friends, both in St. John and elsewhere, who will wish them much happiness. The groom's present to the matron of honor was a bar pin set with amethysts and pearls, and to the groomsmen, a pearl stickpin.

HAMPTON MEETING.
There will be a great recruiting meeting in the Agricultural Hall in Hampton Village tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. The people of this part of Kings County are greatly interested and patriotic sentiment is running high. The meeting tomorrow afternoon will be addressed by Hon. R. J. Ritchie and others.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

St. John Man Has Finger Broken
—A Fierce Versifier

G. K. Howard, who is with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in England writes a very interesting letter to his mother, Mrs. W. T. Howard, of this city. Mr. Howard met with an unfortunate accident on his arrival in England. While he was engaged in unloading one of the boats a box of rifles fell on his hand breaking one of his fingers and jamming the other three. He was sent to the Davenport Hospital along with some of the other boys with different ailments and he has just returned to camp.

In the same hospital were three hundred wounded Germans who, he says, did not seem at all anxious to return to the firing line. They were ordered well in the hospital but the orderlies were "witty" over souvenirs, stealing his belt and stripping the buttons off his tunic. He says they are still under canvas but expect to go into barracks soon.

Mr. Howard was formerly a member of the 62nd regiment but has resided in Vancouver for the last few years and when the first call came for volunteers he was quick to enlist. He says he likes it well. He wishes to be remembered to his friends in St. John.

Mrs. George Campbell, of 42 St. John street, west, has received a letter from her son, Clarence, who is with the soldiers at Salisbury Plain. He states that he is having a pleasant time, is in good health, enjoyed the voyage across, and expects to pay a visit to his mother and visit friends in London to be remembered to all his friends in St. John, and encloses a copy of a rather gory appeal which has been printed and circulated in the mother country, beginning with the lines:

"Sound the bloody trumpet
"Beat the bloody drums."
There are eight verses of quite too sanguinary a nature for general consumption, although the author, whoever he is, suggests that it ought to stir the blood of the patriot. No St. John need have been "seeing red" to anything like the same extent as this fierce versifier on the other side.

The Man In The Street

More "horrors of war." A British M. P. suggests entire prohibition for at least six months.

And they say that some local opponents of war excused their gifts of tobacco for the soldiers by saying they hoped it would come in handy to smoke the pipe of peace with the Kaiser.

The delay in recruiting seems to prove that there are no hard times in this part of the country at present. No able-bodied man can put up a hard luck story on the ground that he cannot get a job when it is being offered to him so insistently.

Ask the Censors
The arm-chair strategists had adjourned to the street corner and were discussing the cause of war. The chairman of the conference was talking when the "bonehead" arrived on the scene.

"—and the Germans look umbrageous!" The bonehead comes forth with the howler, "Where is that place situated?"

At the present rate of travelling, the Standard by Christmas will have the entire cause of the European struggle laid at the doors of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A young fellow, who for the best of reasons was unable to join with the conscription, said to the Man in the Street that every time he stopped to watch the boys in khaki, who have rallied to the call of King and country, he felt like a coward. How about those that are hanging off for no good reason?

Famous Last Lines
Please, Your Honor, if you give me a chance, I'll never get drunk again!

Financial hint—Rubbers are a safe buy at present.

We read a poem once wherein the passionate author said his "main delight was to sit by the roadside and watch the little snails whizzing past." What a joyful time he would have watching the Kaiser's men tramping along the road to Paris.

The members of the A. C. Squad who have been telling what they would have done, now have a chance to help do something just as good. About 400 more men are needed for the 26th.

P. S.—In case they didn't recognize themselves by the letters A. C. by way of explanation, we might say it stands for arm-chair.

"For Men Only" is the slogan of those conducting the patriotic meeting on Friday night. Sounds like the best so far.

DISTRICT LODGE I.O.G.T.
IN ANNUAL SESSION.
D. C. FISHER AT HEAD

The St. John District Lodge, I. O. G. T. met in an annual session last evening in Temple Hall with a very large attendance. Reports from the lodges showed good progress along all lines, and a great deal of enthusiasm. Twenty-seven candidates had the district degree conferred.

The election of officers for the incoming year took place with the following results: D. C. P. D. C. Fisher; D. C. Geo. McKel; D. V. T. Mrs. Akerley; D. Sec. Henry McEachern; D. E. S. L. deLacey; D. B. L. Kirkpatrick; D. Chap. Wm. Arbo; D. Mar. Miss J. Miller; D. S. J. W. Mrs. E. N. Stockford; D. C. T. B. B. Shackleton.

After the regular business, refreshments were served by the ladies of Dominion Lodge.

LANCASTER MEETING
ARRANGED FOR NOV. 30

Recruiting Rally in Fairville Temperance Hall—Funeral of Frederick Wolfe—The Mission

The New Brunswick Patriotic Committee have completed arrangements for the meeting to be held in Fairville Temperance Hall. The date was decided upon last evening, Nov. 30 next, Monday evening, was chosen. Speakers will be secured from St. John and a crowded house is looked for. With the boys at Valcartier in the first contingent, Lancaster is represented by about twenty-five of her sons, and it is said that seven or eight from Fairville are already signed with the 26th Battalion now being organized. Several local young men have also joined the home defence force. Impetus will be given recruiting by the proposed meeting. It should be remembered that the hall is none too large, and it would be well to see that those of the age likely to join the colors are accorded room in preference to those who could not go under any circumstances to aid in the war.

The funeral of Frederick Wolfe, who died suddenly on Sunday, took place yesterday afternoon. After a short service at his son's residence, a public service was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd by Rev. W. P. Dunham. The funeral procession was very lengthy, including employees of R. H. Bell's and many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Mr. Wolfe leaves besides his son Eli at home, a daughter, Mrs. Burhill of Boston, a brother Charles of River Hebert, N. S., and one sister, Mrs. Wm. Lasky, of Chicago.

The mission being conducted in the Church of the Good Shepherd was attended by many last evening. Rev. Mr. Crowfoot preached a powerful sermon on mission lines and at the close gave a short address of instruction. The Fairville Brotherhood were well represented at the service, their meeting having been postponed to permit them to attend the mission. It is reported that several of the other churches are waiving their services with the idea of aiding the movement carried on by the Church of England.

WILL OF JAMES KNOX

In the probate court today the will of James Knox, ship chandler, was proved. He gives his household furniture and effects to his daughter Marion C. Knox; each of his grandchildren, James W. Knox, J. Howe Knox and Muriel Knox, $100, the rest of his estate he directs to be divided into equal shares and paid to his daughter Marion C. Knox and his two sons Richard E. and John W. Knox, whom he nominates as executors. The three were sworn in as such. Power is given to his executors to continue his business of ship chandler if they desire. There is no real estate, personally, $8,800, besides life insurance. Clarence H. Ferguson is probator.

In the matter of the estate of Samuel George Kilpatrick, bookkeeper, William G. H. Kilpatrick of East Orange, N. J., manager, marine hardware agency, J. Cecil Mitchell of St. John, insurance agent, and the Eastern Trust Company, the executors and trustees filed their accounts, not final, and ask for passing of them. A citation was issued returnable December 22 at 11 a. m. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford, probators.

BROTHERS TO THE WAR.

The Times a few days ago announced presentations to Bert Lloyd and Bert Cooper, Oak Hall employees going to the war. It may be added that Mr. Lloyd already has a brother at Salisbury Plain.

HESPERIAN DELAYED

Messrs. William Thomson & Company, agents of the Allan Line, today received advice that the "Hesperian" is late in sailing from Liverpool, and will not be able to leave St. John before two p. m. on December 8.

HANDSOME CALENDAR.

The Times has received from R. F. Wright, provincial manager of the North American Life Assurance Company a very attractive wall calendar for 1915. It is illustrated by a very handsome lithograph of a painting by J. E. Samson, the well-known artist.

The Stores Are At Their Best

This is the season when merchants, anticipating heavy December sales, carry their best assorted and largest stocks.

This is the season when it is most interesting to shop.

This is the season when the newspaper advertising of merchants and manufacturers bubbles over with good news.

If you want to spend some really interesting moments run your eye over the advertising in The Telegraph and Times.
