"Whitie" Gibbons Badly Shaken Up But Injuries Not Thought Serious

JOHN McINTYRE, of 150 Victoria street, North End, a printer with
J. & A. McMillan, and Edward Gibbons ("Whitie"), captain of the Alerts' known players in the city, son of Thomas X. Gibbons, of 435 Main street, are lying in the home of Warren Hall, UN above Penobsquis, on the main road between Sussex and Moncton, suffering from injuries sustained in an auto- Will Attend Cereme

They were returning with Arthur Roach, Main street barber, who lives at the Gibbons' home; William Ryan of St. James street, employed with R.

According to the report of Ervin E. Williams, who motored to the scene of the accident last night and returned this forenoon, the five men were returning under ordinary speed when, about three miles beyond Penobsquis, the car plunged into a rut in the road, having the effect of buckling the front wheels. The abrupt check to the momentum of the vehicle hurtled the car into the air, turning it over twice. There was a general breakage, and in the mix-up the men were either thrown completely through the smashed top of the car or were forced to escape from the wreckage through that opening.

WOMAN FINDS THEM.

It was pitch dark, and Williams, Ryan and Roach, though badly scratched and dazed from the rude shock, rendered what assistance they could to Gibbons and McIntyre, who appeared to be badly hurt and unable to stand. It was half an hour before the victims of the accident were able to find their whereabouts, as most of this time was taken in making the injured companions comfortable. A woman passing rendered assistance and was instrumental in having the boys is laken to the home of Warren Hall, nearby, where Gibbons and McIntyre were cared for, and where they were still being nursed today.
