

FOR WOMEN

AMUSEMENTS

St. Andrew's Day
Was Celebrated

Members of St. Andrew's Society and Friends Heard Excellent Addresses.

With traditional song, dance and custom, members of St. Andrew's Society and their friends foregathered last evening to celebrate St. Andrew's Day as thousands of those of Scottish blood were doing all over the world. The entertainment was held at the Venetian Gardens, the platform of which was decorated with a large St. Andrew's Cross of silver, illuminated with electric lights. On either side were large thistles in natural colors.

To the skill of the pipes, officers of the society headed by President Colonel Alexander McMillan, entered at eight thirty. Accompanying the officers were Judge Grimmer, president of St. George's Society, and Colonel G. G. Corbett, Chief of Clan MacKenzie. The first Vice-president, S. Rutherford Jack, C. B. Allan, 2nd Vice-president, and John White, treasurer, were also on the platform.

Address of Welcome.

In his address, Colonel McMillan read an amusing account of a meeting of the society held in 1788, from the Royal Gazette and New Brunswick Advertiser. He welcomed the guests heartily. Speaking of the history of the year, Colonel McMillan announced that his members who went overseas have been made honorary members of St. Andrew's Society.

The Programme.

The following programme was carried out: Song—"Amen Water," A. C. Smith; Song—"Callers Here," Miss Louise Knight; Address—"The Day an' a' what honor it," Rev. W. Bruce Muir; The Psalm of the Psalm; Song—"Scots Wha Hae," R. H. Anderson; "Thro' hostile ranks and ruined gales, Auld Scotia's bloody lion bairn," Highland Fling, E. B. McDonald; Song—"MacGregor's Gathering," Mrs. Guy; Accompanists, Mrs. Guy, Miss Agnes Anderson.

Rev. David Muir. The orator of the evening was Rev. David Muir, of Shelburne, who, in a most impressive way, described the magnificent part Scotland took in the great war from the moment when huge crowds greeted the news of war's outbreak with the singing of God Save the King, until the glad day of Armistice. He told of how Scotland had always been ready to fight for an ideal while still holding to the Peace of God.

The arts of peace were then emphasized by the fact that the famous cannon works, woolen mills, printing and publishing houses, thread manufacturers are all flourishing Scottish industries. The banking system of Scotland is admitted to be the finest in the world, and that of England and Canada are patterned upon it. Other triumphs of peace were mentioned.

It was suggested that a Chair of Scottish History and Literature should be established to incite Scottish traditions in this generation. Scotland moves slowly, but surely, in reforms. It is evolution which succeeds not revolution. Scotland looks back with pride to the day when union of the crowns of Scotland and England took place. Nothing but the highest good has come to Scotland since. She did not lose her national identity, rather a wider opportunity was given Scotsmen to develop their powers of brain and brawn.

Insidious Propaganda.

"We are all Canadians here," Rev. Mr. Muir said, "with no other desire but to give our best to build up this great Canadian land. It is therefore, with great regret that I notice an insidious propaganda going on which can only have the effect of stirring up bad blood in a land where we all desire to live in harmony. Let me therefore say, in the midst of terms possible, that Ireland during her past history has had more opportunities given her for what is called Self Determination than ever Scotland had. The pity is, she has been misguided in the use of these opportunities, and if she would only settle down to seek self-determination in a way more consistent with true liberty, she would have the support of every loyal and patriotic Scot. But we do not desire to see old country feuds brought into the land of the Maple Leaf. My humble opinion is that self-determinators would be well advised to give up this propaganda. These remarks are made in calm consideration of the issue, and instead of bitter feelings being stirred up, better counsels will prevail, and that, in Canada at all events, Irish, Scots and English will continue to live in unity."

Mr. Muir stated that when he penned the above words he did not know a man with a Scottish name would be speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland.

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

Speaker went on to say: "If in a night like this we gather to extol our national characteristics we are speaking in the loyal city of St. John the same night. He wished to assure the audience that Lindsay Crawford had no authority to speak for people of the North of Ireland."

AS A WOMAN THINKETH

By HELEN ROWLAND

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

What Makes a Man Charming?

"What," writes a worried young man, "are the qualities in a man that appeal to a woman? Every man that I have met with kinky hair, and a pre-war salary can start all the prettiest girls in town fighting over him."

"While a regular, all-wool fellow with plenty of war-medals, blunders and blunders in vain."

"Stop! Stop right there!"

No "all-wool fellow with plenty of war-medals" sighs in vain for feminine adoration in these days.

And there is no black magic or dark mystery about the art of charming a woman.

Any man can be a woman-charmer, a "girl-tamer," a "heart-fancier," if he cares to take the trouble.

And to make the sacrifice.

But, alas, so few of them do!

You can charm a woman in seven—or seventy—ways.

Every one of them guaranteed!

The trouble is that it's so easy, that no man without "the sixth sense" can believe her through, and not interrupt with some brilliant bon-mot of his own!

You can charm her by thinking about her.

By remembering her preferences, her birthday, the thing she said last night, the dress she wore the first time you met, her favorite color.

Any "thought" on the part of a man is a delightful surprise to a woman!

You can charm her by "taking care of her" by chivalry.

Every woman loves that "cocking" manner, in men.

She can come right out of the "gym," after her boxing lesson, and lose her heart, to the first man who helps her off a car-step or gently pulls her back from in front of a speeding automobile.

And you can magnify your charm for her, by dressing to please her, in dark, plain, well-fitting clothes.

By discarding loud checks and plaids, and pinhead coats, and yellow gloves, and silly little mustaches, and hideous derby hats. Ugh!

You don't have to be handsome, or rich, or clever, or brilliant—that is the comfort and joy of being a MAN!

But you can never charm her by POSING, for her, nor by doing stunts, conversation, or doing the "cave-man," by showing her how much more you know than she does; by taking all the laughs and the curmudgeons.

And playing to the gallery!

Because, in this matter of being charmed, a woman is just like a man!

She loves the person who "STARS" her—not the one who tries to startle her!

The man who adores her—not the man who tries to dazzle her!

Ask any woman!

WEDDINGS.

Jones-Robinson

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 30.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized today at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Hassel Hill, near the town of Sussex. The bride, Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match, T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Miss Kinball, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly attired in her travelling suit of brown broad cloth with hat to match and Hudson seal scarf. She was attended by Miss Gladys Wingate, who wore a blue georgette dress with hat to match. T. Carleton Wingate supported the groom. Following the ceremony lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Kinball left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at Union, N. H., where the groom has a very extensive practice.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she was a singer of note for a period of about three years, having left St. John about two years ago.

Diocesan Synod of Catholic DioceseOver Forty Priests Present—
Intention to Hold Synod
Here Every Ten Years.

The first Diocesan Synod of the Catholic diocese of St. John since its founding in 1842 was brought to a close yesterday afternoon. There were over forty priests present from all parts of the diocese, which comprises the southern portion of New Brunswick.

Synod Every Ten Years.

It is the intention to hold the Synod here every ten years in the future. The Synod opened yesterday morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception with a Solemn Pontifical High Mass. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc being the celebrant. The ceremony was a very impressive one, with between forty and fifty priests in the sanctuary and a large congregation present.

The session of the Synod was begun after the laity had left the Cathedral. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc presiding.

Luncheon Served.

Luncheon was served at noon in the Y. M. C. A. George Fritch was the caterer, and the visiting clergymen were served by the social committee of the Catholic Girls' Guild, of which Mrs. T. C. Cox was the convener. She was assisted by Mrs. F. J. Power, president; Mrs. M. T. Kane, Mrs. J. Stach, Mrs. P. Macpherson, Mrs. P. I. McCafferty, Mrs. George McCafferty, Mrs. T. Morrissey, Mrs. Frank Owens, Mrs. Louis Owens, Mrs. John O'Rogan, Mrs. C. Kane, Mrs. M. McGrath, Mrs. W. P. McDonald, Mrs. E. Walsh, and the Misses Alice Carlin, J. Durick, and K. Lawlor. The tables were artistically decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums and presented a very attractive appearance.

The Priests Present.

The list of town prelates and priests who attended the Synod were: Rt. Rev. Mr. John Hebert, V. G. D. P. Bactouche; Rev. Louis Guertin, D. D. C. S. C. St. Joseph's University; Very Rev. Dean F. L. Carney, N. A. Fredericton; Rev. Francis Bactouche, D. D. Rogersville; Rev. D. T. Allan; Rt. Rev. Mr. Philip L. Boliveau, Grand Digue; Rev. E. J. Conway, Maryville; Rev. P. X. Cormier; Rev. Henry D. Cormier, Moncton; Rev. Harold L. Courhan, St. Martin; Rev. Walter M. Donahue, Johnville; Rev. L. Cormier, St. Paul's, Kent Co.; Rev. P. Dufour, Dorchester; Rev. A. Gaudet; Rev. J. J. Gaudet; Rev. W. P. Hannigan, Peterborough; Rev. P. Hober; Rev. J. W. Holand, St. George; Rev. Miles P. Howland, Kingslear, York Co.; Rev. A. Landry, Sackville; Rev. N. Landry; Rev. J. L'Archeveque; Rev. D. LeBlanc; Rev. B. Levesque, St. Joseph's University; Rev. Arthur Leger; Rev. D. Leger; Rev. Francis M. Lockary, Woodstock; Rev. C. McLaughlin, Debec; Rev. M. T. Murphy, Milltown; Rev. M. O'Brien, Norton; Rt. Rev. Mr. J. O'Flaherty, D. P. St. Stephen; Rev. D. B. O'Keefe, St. Andrew; Rev. J. E. Ouellet; Very Rev. Dean Alban Robichaud, Fox Creek; Rev. D. Robichaud; Rev. E. Savage.

Church, when Manford E. Hicks, of the Canadian National Railway, Moncton, formerly of Banan, N. B., was united in marriage with Miss Mary G. McCallum, daughter of Alex. McCallum, Nizon, N. B. Rev. S. A. Baker, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends of both contracting parties.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY

Section; Rev. F. F. Walker, Riverview.

In addition to the Bishop, Vicars-General, Domestic Prelates and priests already mentioned, the following other ecclesiastics were in attendance: Revs. S. C. Oram, Raymond McCarthy, Zool J. Landry and H. Ramage, of the Palace; Rev. J. J. Ryan, St. John West, and Rev. W. L. Moore, Chipman.

LIQUOR CASES
IN POLICE COURT

In the police court yesterday morning Fred Zayward, 231 Brussels street, was charged with having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling. The inspectors testified to finding eleven bottles of whiskey on defendant's rear door step. Zayward said he did not know how the liquor got there and did not own it. The case was postponed until Thursday at noon.

Albert Williams pleaded guilty to having liquor and was fined $200.

AUTOMOBILE BURNED

A Ford car owned by George W. Hatheway of Waterloo street caught fire on Rothersey Avenue last night and was destroyed. The remains will be towed into the city today.

"Diamond Dyes"
Take No OtherDon't Spoil or Streak Material
in a Poor Dye

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can diamond-dye a new, rich, fadeless color into worn, shabby garments, draperies, coverings, whether wool, silk, linen, cotton or mixed goods.

Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect results are guaranteed even if you have never dyed before. Druggist has color card.

JUNIOR "A" BASKETBALL

In the Y. M. C. A. Junior "A" Basketball League yesterday, Sproule's team won from Thompson's by a score of four to nothing.

Armstrong's squad won from Langstroth's by a score of three to two in a close and hard fought game.

The pleasant, sweetened throat lozenges for sore throat and tonsillitis. 50c. a bottle. Smaller size, 25c.

IMPERIAL

ANOTHER PICTURE FROM BIG NOVEL

Lewis J. Selznick Presents

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN

IN

"The Shadow of Rosalie Burnes"

By Grace Sartwell Mason.

Scenario by R. Cecil Smith.

Directed by Geo. Archambault.

Splendid picture by a screen star whose brilliance is constantly growing.

IN ADDITION:

Canadian Pictorial Mixed Scenic Reel

FRI.—Wallace Reid in "The Dancing Fool"

Opera House Vaudeville

Matinee at 2.30

Evening 7.30 and 9

5 ACTS OF HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE

and

SERIAL PHOTO DRAMA

St. John's Greatest Mid-Season

FUR SALE

BUY YOUR FURS NOW

Owing to the past mild weather we have more than we want — to move and turn them into money we are putting on a seven-day sale starting today — 150 Fur Coats to select from at bargain prices. Do not miss this opportunity to secure your Furs now as we cannot duplicate wholesale at quoted prices.

H. MONT. JONES, LTD.

St. John's Only Exclusive Fur House

—Assam Teas are noted for their strength and richness.

Red Rose Tea consists chiefly of selected Assams blended with the finest Ceylons.

Red Rose Coffee is crushed—not ground

SPECIALS ARE CALLED OUT
GUARD LONDON

Government Reported

Trouble With Many

ands of Workless

LIVERPOOL KEEPS

CLOSE WATER

Sinn Fein Attempts Ag

Lives and Property

Very Numerous.

London, Nov. 30.—The mem

the special constables, and been warned to hold them

readiness for service should thousands of trouble in England

ed to the south of St. John's states their being called out special constabulary is compo

thousands of civilians who vo

they assist the regular police necessary. The police this eve issued a statement with regard morning bomb explosion here

course of which it was said:

"As far as the police auth can judge, the evidence does no to the occasion being due to a strained attempt of general dan

Specials Are Out.

In Bootle the Liverpool r

which suffered from the looting of last Saturday night the constabulary was called out.

The corporation of Bootle has

that the use of the town hall is granted for political purpos

an application to use it Sunday at a meeting of Irish societies addressed by Archbishop Mann been refused.

In Liverpool every possible tion is being taken against the cause of the trouble. The do all other places which might tacked are heavily guarded search for the incendiaries is vigorously continued and sev are under arrest. The Liverpool says one of the men arrested

minor official of the custom and that no charges have been

</