Ferrell, Who Killed Messenger Lane, Could Not Look Father in the Face.

Columbus, O., Aug. 14.—Ferrell, the murderer of Express Messenger Lane, is on the verge of collapse. His father, Tobias Ferrell, of Steubenville, called at the prison today. Ferrell could not look his father in the face. "Son, why did you do it?" asked the father. "I could not help it," the murderer repeated several times.

The palmitist who read Ferrell's hand today said he was a born villain. His hand "glows" with the blood of the man he murdered. Miss Lillian Conroy, to whom Ferrell was to be married next Thursday, is almost insane with grief. Friends had already received invitations to the wedding.

The Relief Column is Advancing Rapidly and Meeting With Little Opposition—Germany Hostile to British Occupation of Shanghai.

London, Aug. 15.—A m.—The only news which takes the advance upon Peking further than Hosi Wu comes from Paris. The London Morning papers contain nothing to confirm the French report that the allies are within 16 miles of Peking, although a Che Foo despatch is printed saying that they were within 27 miles of the goal on Saturday.

Continuing the report of the arrival of the international forces at Hosi Wu (also written Hosi Wu) the Daily Mail's correspondent writes: "The Chinese offered little real opposition. The arrival of the allies frustrated a determined attempt to divert the course of the river. The heat is intense, but the health of the troops is good."

A St. Petersburg special says: "The latest news from General Linvich, commanding the Russian troops in the province of Pe Chi Li, is that the allies, after the capture of Yang Tsun, took one day's rest and then on Aug. 7, they marched on to the station of Hosi Wu, where a regiment of Sotnia Cossacks, three battalions of Japanese infantry, one Japanese sapper company and an American mounted battery."

"In spite of the condition of the road this column proceeded by forced marches, and on Aug. 8 it was at the station of Nan Tsai Tung, about 40 miles from the capital, a Chinese detachment which fought for an hour and a half. The Chinese threw down their arms and fled in a panic."

"When this news was sent back, all the allies started forward in great numbers, with Cossacks in front and on the flanks."

reached except by the use of very heavy guns. The situation admits of the prospect of an assault upon Peking, yet government officials were decidedly more optimistic today that a solution of the Chinese problem would be found without recourse to such heroic measures. The improved feeling is based largely on the belief that China, realizing that her sacred capital is about to be besieged by the armies of the world, will yield everything and that the legations will be delivered on the terms of the allies.

The attitude of the United States concerning the landing of British troops at Shanghai has been made known to the foreign governments through their representatives here. This has had the effect of practically settling the United States from the question. Neither the French nor the German government is disposed to accept calmly the landing of British troops, and it is understood that strong representations, both from France and Germany are now being made at London. As summed up by a well informed diplomat, these representations are in effect that for every British marine landed at Shanghai, France and Germany would land a marine. It is felt, moreover, that the issue involved, relates not only to Shanghai, but virtually to the entire Yang Tze-Kiang Valley.

Foreign governments have manifested a desire also to learn the views of the United States concerning the instructions of the late Count Von Waldersee's staff, 30 in all, and one each from the Saxon, Bavarian and Wurtemberg armies. In addition to the names already named, the list includes the following from the general staff: Count Von Wartemburg, Baron Marschall, Major Von Seitzewitz and Captain Von D. r. Groeben. Count Von Waldersee will return to Berlin tomorrow.

United States Wants to Know What Is It—No Reply From China.
Washington, Aug. 14.—The state department today received a message from the British minister in Peking, Sir Claude MacDonald, the contents of which the officials have thus far refused to make public. The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says the German government has ordered two cruisers to Shanghai and that another is on the way, while a fourth is already there.

entrenched in front of the allies above Yang Tsun.
The Hanover Courier, discussing the plan of campaign, says that foreign office circles regard the success of the present movement as next to impossible and expect that the first task of Count Von Waldersee, after his arrival at the front, will be to lead the advance upon Peking.

Rushed the Chinese Trenches at Yang Tsun.
London, Aug. 14.—The British government today received from the Chinese minister in Peking, Sir Claude MacDonald, a message describing the capture of Peitang and Yang Tsun. He says the Japanese dislodged the enemy from Peitang and Yang Tsun.

The Situation at Peking Reported to Have Grown Worse.
London, Aug. 14.—A special despatch from Shanghai dated Aug. 13, says numerous reports from Peking dated Aug. 8, have arrived there, describing the situation at the Chinese capital. It appears the Chinese are again desperately attacking the legations, which had few defenders left. It is also alleged that Prince Tuan and a Indemnity for All Americans Killed—The United States Does Not Want Territory.

Washington, Aug. 14.—This government does not want a square foot of Chinese territory as indemnity. An official who is close to the president, said today, "There is but one indemnity which they can give our people and that is a monetary indemnity to the families of their American victims. For every one of these who has been killed, the Chinese must pay a sufficient sum to keep their families from want during their lives."

German Papers Discussing Possibility of Clashing Interests.
Berlin, Aug. 14.—Considerable surprise is expressed by the German foreign office at the information communicated to Washington by General Chaffee, that the British troops were at Hosi Wu on Thursday, inasmuch as other recent despatches had asserted that the Chinese were strongly hundred high officials have left Peking and that the news of the capture of Yang Tsun caused a heavy exodus of the elite. Finally it is said that the execution of Cheng Yin Huan, the Cantonese who was special ambassador of China to Queen Victoria's jubilee, has created widespread terror and it is believed to be a fact that Yang Tsun, the former viceroy of Chi Li was killed in battle at Yang Tsun.

Canadians Have Had a Very Hard Time—Stripped and Beaten.
New York, Aug. 14.—Robert E. Steer, one of the secretaries of the Presbyterian missions, today received several letters from missionaries in China and Japan. The following is an extract from the communication written by Rev. J. A. Fish, dated Nagasaki, Japan, July 28:

Under date of Canton, July 13, Rev. Henry B. Hayes writes: "So long as the victors of 11 provinces stand by their present agreement to abide by the treaty, perfect foreigners and there will be no war in South China. It seems to me that it will be to the interest of foreign nations as well as the victors to continue their military operations to North China. If this is done I would hope that our work in South China would not be seriously affected."

Brilliant Soldering by the Men of the East—British and Russian Artillery.
Shanghai, Monday, Aug. 13.—The following despatch has been received from the Associated Press correspondent with the allied forces, dated Peitang, Aug. 5, and forwarded by mail to Che Foo and Shanghai: "The glory of today's fighting belongs to the Japanese. They did all the hardest fighting. The Americans were in reserve and had no casualties. The Japanese advanced across the plain, had no shelter, and flanked the Chinese from their strong Hearty Farewell to Canadians Homeward Bound.

London, Aug. 14.—One hundred Canadians who were invalided from South Africa and had been recuperating at Shoreham, arrived in London this morning and took train for Liverpool, whence they will sail for home. They were greeted all along the route with ovations and thousands of London's residents turned out to welcome them upon their arrival and gave them a tremendous send-off as they marched through the city. The detachment belonged to a Canadian regiment of Strathcona's Horse.

London, Aug. 14.—Referring to the lack of an official farewell to the returning Canadians, the Daily Mail says: "They left without a note of music to cheer them on their way and without a voice to bid them God speed and to testify to the gratitude of the old country. They were bunched together in the metropolitan vans, for all the world as if they were so many 'returned emigrants.' The war office is to blame. Is it not eternal? Can nothing be done to wicker up and destroy forever the lane of our Empire?"

Should Be Allowed to Return.
London, Aug. 15.—Dealing with the British South Africa Chartered Company's offer of five farms in Rhodesia to colonial volunteers, the Morning Post maintains that although it is well meant, it is a breach of courtesy to persuade Canadians and other British subjects to desert their own countries in favor of South Africa.

Canadians Invalided.
Ottawa, Aug. 14.—(Special)—Militia orders announce the following men of the R. C. R. invalided from South Africa to the 7th and 8th regiments of the militia: 7411, Pte. S. Vicary, 5th Regiment; 7412, Pte. W. Schreiner, 5th Regiment; 7413, Pte. R. E. Lord, 82nd Regiment. All but the last named have been sent to the provisional depot at Shoreham. No Asylum for Kruger.
Washington, Aug. 14.—It is said at the state department that no formal application ever has come from Consul Hollis for a sanctuary in the American consulate for President Kruger and that the instructions sent to the consul to confine his energies to his consular duties was not a result of any discussion of an asylum for the Boer president, as the department was not aware that Mr. Hollis had visited the president. It is stated also in this connection that the right of asylum or sanctuary does not exist as to consuls, but is purely a diplomatic immunity at a legation or other quarters occupied by a minister. It appears that some intimation on the subject reached the officials here, but it is said to have been not such a formal application as would have been required. Had formal application been made, it is stated that it would have been passed upon by the president but there has been nothing communicated which called for such action.
