| The Governor General's Reasons for Proroguing Parliament. [From the Telegraph.]

OTTAWA, Aug. 14. The following is the full text of the substance of the verbal reply made by His Excellency yesterday, to the memorial presented to him by the delegation from a large number of the House of Commons :

Gentlemen: It is quite unnecessary for me to assure you that any representations emanating from persons possessing the right to speak on public affairs with such authority as yourselves will always be considered by me with the greatest respect, even had not circumstances, also be considered by me with the greatest respect, even had not circumstances, also be considered by me with the greatest respect, even had not circumstances, also be considered by me with the greatest respect to the public. By virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Act, Vic. 31, Cap. 39, on the other hand, I have determined in anxious thought to the matters to which the members of bo The following are the rates charged for Transient Advertisements in The Transient Advertisemen

You say, in your memorandum, that four months have elapsed since the Hon. Mr. Huntington preferred grave charges of corruption against my present advisevents, it is but fair to every one that I should state, viz., that immediately after I had assented to that Act, I transmitted a certified copy of it to the Secretary of State, in accordance with the instructions by which I am bound on such occasions. I had assented to that Act, I transmitted a certified copy of it to the Secretary of State, in accordance with the instructions by which I am bound on such occa-

witnesses on oath, that the Act was not ultra vires, I accompanied it by a full exposition of the arguments which could be inconsistent with the Act of Confederation, and That, therefore, the postponement of the enquiry, so far as it has arisen out of this circumstance has resulted wholly by the operation of law, and has been beyond the control of any one concerned.

You then proceed to urge me, on grounds which are very fairly and forcibly stated, to decline the advice which has been prantmously tendered to me by my stated, to decline the advice which has been unanimously tendered to me by my responsible ministers and to refuse to prorogue Parliament; in other words, you require me to dismiss them from my counsel, for, gentlemen, you must be aware that this would be the necessary result of my assenting to your recommendation.

Upon what grounds should I be justified in taking so grave a step?

What guarantee can you afford me that the Parliament of the Dominion would endorse such an act of personal interference on my part?

You yourselves grantlemen do not

You, yourselves, gentlemen, do not form an actual moiety of the House of Commons, and I have no means therefore of ascertaining that the majority of that body subscribed to the opinion you have

Again, to what should I have to appeal Again, to what should I have to appear in justification of my conduct?
It is true, grave charges have been preferred against those gentlemen, charges which I admit require the most searching investigation, but as you, yourselves, remark in your memorandum, the truth of those accusations still remain contested.
One of the autlors of the corr spontance which has made so panual an imence which has made so painful an impression upon the public has admitted that many of his statements were hasty and inaccurate, and has denied, on oath, and the deputions drawn he correctness of the deductions drawn rom them.

Various assertions contained in the parrative of the others have been positively contradicted.

Is the Governor General, upon the strength of such evidence as this, to drive from his presence gentlemen who for years have filled the highest office of State, and in whom the present Parliament has repeatedly declared its continued confidence? It is true certain documents have lately appeared in connection with these matters, of very grave significance, in regard to which the fullest explanation must be given, but no ively contradicted.

significance, in regard to which the fun-est explanation must be given, but no proof has yet been adduced which neces-sarily connect them with the culpable transactions of which it is asserted they formed part, however questionable they may appear, as placed in juxtaposition, with the correspondence appended by the person who has possessed himself of them.

Under these circumstances, what right Under these circumstances, what right has the Governor General, on his personal responsibility, to proclaim to Canada—nay, not only to Canada, but to America and Europe, as such a proceeding on his part must necessarily do, that he believes his ministers guilty of the crimes alleged against them? Were it possible at the present time to make a call of the House and place myself in direct communication with the Parliament of the Dominion, my present embarrass ment would disappear, but this is a physical imposibility, I am assured by my Prime Minister, and the other report of the proceedings at the time bears out his statement that when Parliament adjourned, it was announced by him as the Leader of the House, that the meeting on the 13th of August would be immediately followed by prorogation, and that no substantiative objection was taken to th's announcement, and that, as a consequence, a considerable portion of your fellow members are dispersed in various directions.

I should therefore only deceive myself were I to regard the present assembly as a full parliament.

Since the adjournment, indeed, circumstances have occurred which render your proximate re-assembly highly desirable, but in the country there are physical circumstances which necessarily interpose a considerable lapse of time before the representatives of the various provinces, CASES in flue order, and offered low for immediate sale, by the case only. BERTON BROS.

some of them are, by thousands of miles from the capital of the Dominion.

In regulating the times and sessions when Parliament is to be called together, when Parliament is to be called together, the Executive is bound not only to consider the reasonable convenience of these gentlemen, but also to protect the federal right of the provinces which they represent, and under these circumstances I have concluded, on the advice of my ministers, and even if I differed from them as to the policy of such a course, which I do not, it is a point upon which I should be disposed to accept their recommendation, to issue a royal commission of enquiry to three gentlemen of such legal scanding, character and authority, as will command the confidence abers of both Ho of their re-ass of their re-assembling, immediately the Commission of Inquiry shall have concluded their labors. By those means, as opportunity will be afforded for the preliminary purgation of these unhappy matters before a tribunal to take evidence on oath; ample concentration will be cleaned.

oath; ample opportunity will be given to the members of the more distant provin-

of corruption against my present advisers, in reference to the Pacific Ry contract, and that although the House has appointed a committee to enquire into those charges, the proceedings of this committee have on several grounds been postponed, and the enquiry has not taken place.

Gentlemen, no person can regret more deeply than I do these unfortunate delays, the more so as they seem to have given rise to the impression that they have been unnecessarily interposed by the action of the Executive.

It may be premature at this moment to enter into a history of the disallowance of the oath bill, but this much, at all events, it is but fair to every one that I
